Fletcher, 1894      To Amend the Library Services and Construction Act, Hearing Before the Select Subcommittee on Education....90-1, on H.R. 9518 and H.R. 12567, Bills to Amend the Library Services and Constructin Act with Respect to the Extent of the Required Matching Under Titles III and IV Thereof, Washington, D.C.. United States. Congress. House. Education and Labor, 1967      Activities of United States Citizens Employed by the United Nations United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee to Investigate the Administration of the Internal Security Act and Other Internal Security Laws, 1952      BIALL Handbook of Legal Information Management Loyita Worley, 2020-07-26 The second edition of this popular handbook has been thoroughly updated by the original team of experts and some new contributors to provide current best practice guidance on the key legal information issues for every type of service Each of the chapters is updated to reflect general changes in law libraries and their users in the past seven years In particular the handbook covers new information technologies including social networking and communication New chapters also focus on the key topics of outsourcing and the impact of the 2007 Legal Services Act The second edition of this valuable handbook continues to be an important professional reference tool for managers and staff of all types of legal information services and will help them with the challenges they face in their work every day      Host Bibliographic Record for Boundwith Item Barcode 30112106187302 and Others, 1912      District of Columbia Appropriations, 1960 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on District of Columbia Appropriations, 1959      George Herbert Locke and the Transformation of Toronto Public Library, 1908-1937 Lorne D. Bruce, 2020-12-31 George H Locke chief librarian of the Toronto Public Library between 1908 and 1937 was Canada's foremost library administrator in the first part of the twentieth century During this period free public libraries and librarianship in Ontario expanded rapidly due to the philanthropy of Andrew Carnegie improvements in library education and the influence of American library services Locke was closely associated with all these trends however his outlook was primarily guided by his Methodist upbringing the Anglo Canadian academic tradition of British Idealism and his association with John Dewey's contribution to American progressive education These religious and intellectual strands encouraged personal action to improve social conditions As director of Toronto's libraries he brought his ambitious ideas to bear in many ways the building of neighbourhood branches library service for children formal education for librarians suitable reading for immigrants and young adults and the idea of the public library as a municipal partner in the self education of adult Canadians By 1930 Toronto's public library system was recognized as one of the best in North America and George Locke's reputation as a visionary leader had vaulted him to the Presidency of the American Library Association Although he had created a large organization that might have succumbed to bureaucratic practices and formalized centralization Locke resisted this development He remained faithful to his moral intellectual and humanistic values acquired during his early schooling and university career For Locke libraries and librarians were less about organization and formal duties Both needed to be faithful to the main principle of serving the public interest by delivering knowledge and by guiding individual self development through experiential learning and transcendent ideals      Government Publications Bernard M. Fry, Peter Herson, 2013-10-02 Government Publications Key Papers is a compilation of papers that covers various topics related to government publications The book presents materials drawn from a variety of sources such as public domains book chapters and periodicals from different countries The text contains 61 chapters organized into 15 parts each part covers a specific area such as sorting and labeling of publications library systems reference services and municipal and state publications The book dedicates several parts to British Canadian and Australian publications This book will be of great value to individuals who have an interest in government information      Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Allen Kent, Harold Lancour, Jay E.
