Reflections Of A Black Man:

Reflections of a Black Man Efton F. Geary, 1970 The Revised Spiritual Reflections of a Blackman David L. Cain, 2005-07-15 Originally published in 1997 David L Cain revisited the personal journals that inspired the The Spiritual Reflections of a Black Man The new insights pick up where the original left off and cover a variety of current events that include accepting our differences adopting high values dealing with adversity and making tough life choices By reflecting on life events spiritually we show God that we are ready to learn His promise of ask and it shall be opened unto you has never been and never will be broken We simply have to ask in the right context and since God is a Spirit then it stands to reason that the right context is spiritual

Sentiments and Reflections of a Black Man Clint B. Walker, 2011-05-26 This book of poems were written in the attempt to get Gods message out I had a heavenly encounter with God and was taken out of body mind or spirit I can not really tell which but I know it was for the purpose of uniting all people for the common good Some of these poems deals with secular life and some are written from a more spiritual venue but as Jesus use parables to explain the good and bad of our actions so have I been instructed to do as well When we dabble in things that has no profit only destruction then there is an equal reaction to all actions These words are the inspired works of God and will truly bless all that read them They will offer inspiration courage guidance and wisdom If the reader keeps an open mind and let the Holy spirit talk to their subconscious Gods words do not go away into the void but they accomplish what they are sent out to accomplish This book will have a universal appeal to all its readers and will give all readers a greater insight into the mind of the author whom happens to be a black man but more important a child of God Its purpose is to unite all races to come together as one people There is no difference between the Jew and Greek bond nor free for whosoever calls on the name of the Lord will be saved I profess we all are whosoever whether red yellow black brown or white we are all precious in Gods sight Read these poems with an open mind and a receptive heart and I guarantee you will be truly blessed by reading them as I was blessed by writing them May God bless all of his children with good health happiness and prosperity is my hearts desire and prayer

Henfield, Ahmad R. Washington, 2015-11-01 Discussions and research related to the salience of Black male student needs and development in relation to their general success and well being is well documented in many fields Indeed many studies have found that healthy masculine identity development is associated with a number of positive outcomes for males in general including Black males In school counseling literature however this discussion has been relatively absent particularly regarding those students living in urban contexts Indeed research devoted to the study of Black males in the school counseling literature focuses almost exclusively on race and issues associated with its social construction with only cursory if any attention given to their masculine identity development as a function of living in urban communities and attending urban schools Based on this lack of information it is probably a safe assumption that intentional systematic culturally relevant efforts to assist Black males in developing healthy achievement and masculine identities based on their unique personal social academic experiences and future career goals are not being applied by school counselors concerned with meeting students needs School counselors are in a unique position nonetheless to lend their considerable expertise insights training and skills to improving life outcomes among Black males a population who are consistently in positions of risk according to a number of quality of life indicators Without knowledge and awareness of Black males masculine identity development in urban areas coupled with the requisite skills to influence the myriad factors that enhance and impede healthy development in such environments they are missing out on tremendous opportunities which other professions appear to understand and quite frankly seem to take more seriously As such this book proposes to accomplish two specific goals 1 Highlight the plight of Black males with specific emphasis on the ecological components of their lives in relation to current school culture and trends 2 Encourage school counselors to give more thought to Black male identity development that takes into consideration differential experiences in society as a whole and schools in particular as a function of the intersection of their race as well as their gender The first rationale for this book then is to highlight the plight of Black males with specific emphasis on the ecological components of their lives in relation to current school culture and trends e g standards based accountability practices in urban environments However I recognize the role of school counselors has never been fully integrated into educational reform programs As such their positions are often unregulated and determined by people in positions of power who do not understand their training job specific standards and thus potential impact on the lives of Black male students As a result their vast potential to develop strong interventions designed to address the myriad racial and masculine factors that serve to enhance and impede Black males academic achievement is often unrealized Therefore the second reason for this special issue is to include the scholarship of professional school counselors and counselor educators with policy change in mind Scholars will be invited to contribute manuscripts that explore race masculinity and academic achievement in relation to the role of school counselors This is designed to encourage school counselors and counselor educators to give more thought to Black male identity development that takes into consideration differential experiences in society as a whole and schools in particular as a function of the intersection of their race as well as their gender
