Reflections upon Childhood and Adolescence Anna Wilczewska, 2014-07-18 The thesis is devoted to the intertextual analysis of The Cement Garden the first novel of a famous postmodern British novelist Ian McEwan In the following chapters I shall prove that the novel exhibits both intertextual relations with particular works of fiction and also enters into a discourse with the generic archetypes The first chapter refers to the intertextual relation text text and concentrates on the profound interconnectivity between McEwan s The Cement Garden and Golding s Lord of the Flies The focus is also placed upon depiction of childhood and in a more general sense human nature by both authors in relation to the literary tradition The chapter traces various techniques employed by McEwan in the novel in order to refresh the already read and provide a modern vision of childhood and adolescence The second and the third chapters are devoted to the intertextual discourse with the generic literary tradition namely Gothic fiction and psychological novel of development Both chapters depict the ways generic conventions are used in The Cement Garden but also portray the author s deliberate departure and inversion of particular attributes of the genres The author either provides the parody and inversion of the generic conventions or employs particular generic aspects in order to effectively express and emphasize certain issues brought about in the novel Thanks to the skillful use of the genres and their conventions McEwan achieves an extraordinary effect and invites the reader to explore a complex network of literary allusions

Adulthood in Children's Literature Vanessa Joosen, 2018-09-06 While most scholars who study children s books are pre occupied with the child characters and adult mediators Vanessa Joosen re positions the lens to focus on the under explored construction of adulthood in children's literature Adulthood in Children's Literature demonstrates how books for young readers evoke adulthood as a stage in life enacted by adult characters and in relationship with the construction of childhood Employing age studies as a framework for analysis this book covers a range of English and Dutch children's books published from 1970 to the present Calling upon critical voices like Elisabeth Young Bruehl Margaret Morganroth Gullette Peter Hollindale Maria Nikolajeva and Lorraine Green and the works of such authors as Babette Cole Philip Pullman Ted van Lieshout Jacqueline Wilson Salman Rushdie and Guus Kuijer Joosen offers a fresh perspective on children's literature by focusing not on the child but the adult How Picturebooks Work Maria Nikolajeva, Carole Scott, 2013-02-01

How Picturebooks Work is an innovative and engaging look at the interplay between text and image in picturebooks The authors explore picturebooks as a specific medium or genre in literature and culture one that prepares children for other media of communication and they argue that picturebooks may be the most influential media of all in the socialization and representation of children Spanning an international range of children's books this book examines such favorites as Curious George and Frog and Toad Are Friends along with the works of authors and illustrators including Maurice Sendak and Tove Jansson among others With 116 illustrations How Picturebooks Work offers the student of children's literature a new methodology new theories and a new set of critical tools for examining the picturebook form Teacher Reflections on Transitioning From K-12 to Higher Education Classrooms Broemmel, Amy D., Vines, Nora, 2022-04-15 Education is a field in which reflective practice is imperative for teacher and student success and for maintaining the desire to remain in the profession During times of uncertainty particularly as teachers faced the dual pandemics of social injustice and the COVID 19 pandemic over the past year they have felt demoralized and powerless As a result burnout among educators is becoming increasingly prevalent It is crucial for teachers to hear reflections of others' experiences to remind them that they are not alone in their work provide opportunities for them to find connections with fellow educators and encourage them to engage in reflective practices of their own Teacher Reflections on Transitioning From K 12 to Higher Education Classrooms provides a collection of reflections from educators on their varied experiences within education and how and why they have pursued a place in academia This book speaks to the humanistic side of academia by acknowledging the multiple passions professions and pathways that led each of the authors to academia It is unique in that it is laced with the lived realities of the human side of academia from a shared stories perspective Covering topics such as lifelong learners and identity shifts this major reference work is ideal for academicians researchers scholars practitioners principals administrators educators and students
