Reflections On A Long Journey:

Long Journey to the Border Vincent O'Sullivan, 2011 John Mulgan was part of a gifted yet uneasy group of young New Zealanders who made their mark between the wars men such as Ian Milner James Bertram Dan Davin and Geoffrey Cox An Oxford graduate he worked as a publisher at Oxford University Press before leaving for the front in World War Two Fascinated but sometimes troubled by his home country Mulgan saw New Zealand as a place of challenge and austere demands a land that produced men more practical than cultivated In his famous novel Man Alone he depicted it as a tough often heartless country characterised by the solitary figure who has come to symbolise the male New Zealand psyche He wrote more warmly of the place and the people in the poignant memoir Report on Experience published after his death Mulgan was a glamorous figure handsome gifted and good at anything he attempted His last years were spent fighting in the Allied cause in Egypt and Greece where he distinguished himself But there were darker threads too which culminated in his decision to take his own life in Cairo just after the end of the war and aged only 33 In this penetrating biography Vincent O Sullivan draws on a large collection of personal papers official records and contemporary memoirs to paint a vivid portrait of a man who came to represent so much about his country and his time

County Bar Association,2018-12-01 A compelling series of insightful biographical sketches of the men and women of the York County Bar commencing eleven years before the start of the Civil War as recounted by contemporaries and colleagues Candid sincere honest and on occasion with a touch of comic relief these memorial minutes are tributes to those who have made their rendezvous with mortality Found within these volumes is the venerable Jeremiah S Black who walked the corridors of national recognition during the Civil War era the urbane and brilliant Herbert B Cohen who wielded substantial political power throughout the commonwealth and rose to become an associate justice of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court and the charismatic Harvey Gross whose superb advocacy in the third Hex trial and subsequent twenty year tenure on the York County Orphans Court placed him in the forefront of the princes of Anglo Saxon jurisprudence This callout of the giants in no way diminishes the significance commitment and integrity of the many other remarkable individuals who came after and counseled and inspired others to live honestly to exercise compassion and to act with prudence and diligence and above all else made their contribution to the vast and diverse panorama of our humanity Not a typical memoir or story these memorial minutes constitute the defining epic of the York County Bar More than history more than recitals of character and personality and more than delightful encounters and more somber content they are about individuals remembered for the richness and power of their hopes achievements and commitments to the timeless values of the life of the law      The Life of Love: An Invitation: Fifty-two Reflections on Emotional and Spiritual Healing Sharon Southwell,2014-10-26 Is love the place where psychological observation and spiritual wisdom about healing meet If love is associated with healing of all sorts how do I more consciously set about to grow in love seeking healing for myself and for my neighbours community and world How do I encourage others in their journeys into love Drawing on a broad Christian heritage a deep respect for the insights of other religious and spiritual traditions and two decades of work in welfare and clinical settings psychologist

Sharon Southwell encourages spiritual seekers of all backgrounds to consider these questions for themselves Structured in 52 Reflections each followed by Invitations The Life of Love invites you to grow in love by embracing life giving connection to yourself to others your community to art nature and to your ultimate context whether you experience this as God or as some other immanent or transcendent spiritual connection Reflections Helen Brown,2015-07-06 My parents grew up in a time that most of us only read about in history books They saw history made many times Their generation created the advantages that we take for granted today Like us they too had to rely on the Lord Jesus for strength courage and pure grit to get through the dangers they faced each day They still managed to raise five healthy children all of whom are capable productive members of society There was a great variety of experiences throughout their lives and through these have been able to learn and grow as part of the Australian community These lessons have been passed on to not only their children but to the many people that they have come into contact with throughout their days in ministry farming and community service as well They unselfishly offered me this project I am pleased to be able to share some of their lessons with the whole wide world through this book As I presented each article I was made aware that there was an extra blessing that I could claim I have added these at the end of each contribution We their children have been very blessed to have had such wonderful parents as our role models in life My prayer is that this book may bring some insight into what life was like in times past May it also help us all to be grateful for the determination that their generation had to give us the advantages we have today

Reflections of Twelve Decades Frank Morgan,2012-12-18 This informative and loving memoir about the life and times of author Frank Morgan tells the story of his years in East Africa with his beloved wife But the story is even much richer than that in that it also covers twelve decades of time in an area of the world most can only dream about Now age 88 and retired the author has always wanted to share his East African adventures as well as his work for the British government in the development of the region Morgan also tells of his ancestors involvement in East Africa and the Seychelles that began in 1830 His epic story takes readers up to the year 1958 Reflections of Twelve Decades is a fascinating mixture of what ifs and what could have beens Reflections on Old Age Cornelius F. Murphy,2015-04-07 The English writer E M Forster described old age as a seductive combination of increased wisdom and decaying powers to which too little intelligence is devoted This book is a response to that criticism It explains how old age has been considered throughout the ages by philosophers poets and other literary figures and explores how the extraordinary increase of life expectancy that began in the last century has been sustained by science and medicine Unfortunately the general public still prefers to keep the elderly out of sight and especially out of mind To overcome this marginalization I call for the emergence of a more inclusive humanism one that is welcoming to persons of all ages To overcome the pervasive isolation of the elderly requires a new dialogue across all the living generations Echoing the sentiments of Cicero in his classic study of old age I also call for a reflective maturity to develop among the elderly one that reaches deeply into themselves and increases their understanding of the world around them Spiritual maturity demands growth in virtue and charity in the advance of years A reaching out to all in the pursuit of justice and the common good is strongly recommended The book concludes with some reflections upon hopes for personal immortality as well as the qualities of divine justice and mercy      Rolling Reflections Barrett
