Reformation Debate:

A Reformation Debate John C. Olin, 2009-08-25 In 1539 Cardinal Jacopo Sadoleto Bishop of Carpentras addressed a letter to the magistrates and citizens of Geneva asking them to return to the Roman Catholic faith John Calvin replied to Sadoleto defending the adoption of the Protestant reforms Sadoleto's letter and Calvin's reply constitute one of the most interesting exchanges of Roman Catholic Protestant views during the Reformation and an excellent introduction to the great religious controversy of the sixteenth century These statements are not in vacuo of a Roman Catholic and Protestant position They were drafted in the midst of the religious conflict that was then dividing Europe And they reflect too the temperaments and personal histories of the men who wrote them Sadoleto's letter has an irenic approach an emphasis on the unity and peace of the Church highly characteristic of the Christian Humanism he represented Calvin's reply is in part a personal defense an apologia pro vita sua that records his own religious experience And its taut comprehensive argument is characteristic of the disciplined and logical mind of the author of The Institutes of the Christian Religion A Reformation Debate Jean

John Calvin & Jacopo Sadoletus John C. Olin, 1966 The Debate on the English Reformation Rosemary O'Day, 2003-10-03
 First published in 2003 The Debate on the English Reformation combines a discussion of the successive historical approaches to the English Reformation from 1525 to the present with a critical review of recent debates in the area offering a major contribution to modern political social and religious historiography as well as to Reformation studies John Calvin and Jacopo Sadoletus J. Sadoletus, 1966 The Authority of Scripture in Reformed Theology Henk Van Den Belt, 2008-01-01 This book discusses the concept of the self convincing authority of Scripture in the historical development of Reformed theology and advocates an emphasis on the autopistia in a postmodern context because truth and trust are inseparable Debate Index, 1919 The Authority of the Word Celeste Brusati, Karl A. E.. Enekel, Walter Melion, 2011-11-11 This book examines scriptural authority and its textual and visual instruments asking how words and images interacted to represent and by representing to constitute authority both sacred and secular in Northern Europe between 1400 and 1700 Poverty in the Theology of John Calvin Bonnie L. Pattison, 2006-11-01 It is the thesis of this study that in Calvin's theology poverty and affliction not splendor and glory mark and manifest the kingdom of God on earth Poverty makes the kingdom visible to the eyes and therefore recognizable as divine Poverty acts to reveal or disclose that which is spiritual or that which is of God in the Christian faith This does not mean that Calvin sees the condition of physical poverty as revelatory in and of itself Rather poverty and affliction function as agents of divine revelation They are a condition or a chosen instrument God uses to disclose to humanity the nature of true spirituality godliness and poverty of spirit How this is demonstrated in Calvin's thought depends upon the specific doctrine under examination This study explores three particular areas in Calvin's theology where his theological understanding of spiritual poverty and physical poverty or affliction intersect his Christology his doctrine of the Christian life and his ecclesiology Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation Robin Healey, 2011-12-15 Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation provides the most complete record possible of texts from the early periods that have been translated into English and published between 1929 and 2008 It lists works from all genres and subjects and includes translations wherever they have appeared across the globe In this annotated bibliography Robin Healey covers over 5 200 distinct editions of pre 1900 Italian writings Most entries are accompanied by useful notes providing information on authors works translators and how the translations were received Among the works by over 1 500 authors represented in this volume are hundreds of editions by Italy's most translated authors Dante Alighieri Machiavelli and Boccaccio and other hundreds which represent the author's only English translation A significant number of entries describe works originally published in Latin Together with Healey's Twentieth Century Italian Literature in English Translation this volume makes comprehensive information on translations accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature
