Reformed Church Roots:

The Dutch Reformed Church in the American Colonies Gerald Francis De Jong, 1978 The Dutch Reformed Church in the American Colonies remains the best study of the early years of the Reformed Church in North America De Jong's careful account takes the readers on a fascinating journey from the establishment of a Dutch church at a mill in New Amsterdam to the early years of an indigenous American denomination Along the way we become acquainted with issues in the colonial period that are pertinent in the twenty first century for the Reformed Church in America church multiplication leadership training discipleship regional tensions adaptation to cultural changes worship and liturgy De Jong helps us to see that in many respects the more things change the more they remain the same The Rev Dennis N Voskuil Ph D President and De Witt Professor of Church History Western Theological Seminary Holland Michigan The reissue of De Jong's classic study is very welcome Though of course there has been other important work on various aspects of the colonial Dutch Reformed experience in the thirty years since the book's first appearance still it remains the standard comprehensive account a careful and thorough work that shows a mastery of the sources and sticks close to them The Rev John Coakley Ph D L Russel Feakes Professor of Church History New Brunswick Theological Seminary New Brunswick New Jersey communities possess such a wealth of written documents bearing on their past history or have been the centre to the same extent of so many varied activities However there were considerations on the other side which made me decide to undertake the work The extensive archives of the Church are well arranged and well preserved The most important part the voluminous correspondence consisting mainly of letters addressed to the Church Council has been made available in a highly meritorious manner by J H Hessels publication Ec clesiae LondinoBatavae Archivum Only a small part of the often very detailed minutes of the Council meetings has been published but these pUblications by Dr A Kuyper and Dr A A van Schelven cover two very important periods in the history of the Church In addition there are the pUblications of the Marnix Society viz Ruytinck s Gheschiedenissen Hi story and its sequels and the Acta of the Colloquia of the Dutch church communities in England
