Refugee Policy Challenges The Case Of Nicaraguans In Costa Rica:

Refugee policy challenges Mario A. Ramírez Boza,1989 Salvadorans in Costa Rica Bridget Hayden,2022-09-13

During the political and economic upheaval that swept El Salvador in the 1980s as many as 20 000 Salvadorans took refuge in Costa Rica Despite similarities between the countries most Salvadorans experienced El Salvador and Costa Rica as very different places yet some 6 000 chose to remain after the violence in their country ended re establishing their lives successfully enough that they claimed that they now felt Costa Rican Bridget Hayden examines the ways in which these people integrated into Costa Rican society and the ambiguous sense of identity they developed exploring their experience of the process and the cultural concepts they used to interpret those experiences Salvadorans in Costa Rica Displaced Lives introduces readers to people from a wide range of class and educational backgrounds who had come to Costa Rica from all over El Salvador All shared the experience of having become refugees and having settled in a new country under the same circumstances and when the war in their own country ended they shared a concern about the issues involved in deciding whether to return there Their diversity allows Hayden to examine the ways in which the language of national identity played out in different contexts and sometimes contradictory ways Drawing on contemporary theories of migration and space Hayden identifies the discourses narratives and concepts that Salvadorans in Costa Rica had in common and then analyzes the ways in which their experiences and their uses of those discourses varied She focuses on key spatial concepts that Salvadorans used in talking about displacement and re emplacement in order to show how they constructed the experience of settlement and how such variables as gender and age influenced their experiences Because nationality was an idiom they used to relate their experiences she pays particular attention to the role of national belonging and national difference in terms of both the ways in which the Salvadorans were received by Costa Ricans and their reactions to their new lives in Costa Rica A concluding chapter compares them with Salvadorans who emigrated to other countries The story of these displaced Salvadorans focusing on the lives of real people can give us a new understanding of how individuals feel a sense of belonging to a sociocultural space By exploring many meanings of the nation and national belonging for different people under varying conditions Hayden s study provides fresh insights into the dynamics of migration gender and nationalism

Causes and Aftermaths of the Economic, Political and Cultural Migration in the Area of the Caribbean and Central America During the XXth Century Alfredo Fernando Reid Ellis,2007 Refugee policy challenges Mario A. Ramírez Boza,1989 After Involuntary Migration Milica Zarkovic Bookman,2002-01-01 Some 35 million involuntarily displaced people live in refugee camps in over 90 countries many have done so for decades and live among generations of their families The camps now constitute towns and villages of their own with ad hoc social and political systems and complicated relationships with the governments that house them In After Involuntary Migration Milica Bookman provides the first comprehensive analysis of the political economies of refugee camps Drawing on research from in depth studies of over thirty such settlements the book illustrates the economic interaction between the camps and their neighboring host communities Bookman examines the forms of legitimate and illegitimate discrimination that restricts the camps participation in their host economies and explores the different ways democratic market oriented countries and those with command economies approach the camps on their fringes With emphasis on the social politics of the encampments After Involuntary Migration gives direction to the policymaker and insight to the social scientist Reintegration of Nicaraguan Refugees and Internally Displaced Persons Marvin Ortega,1991 After Modernism Michael P. Smith,1992-01-01 Selected Papers on Refugee Issues ,1996 Repatriation Under Conflict in Central America Mary Ann Larkin,Frederick C. Cuny,Barry Nathan Stein,1991 Nicaraguan Repatriation to Mosquitia Marvin Ortega,1991 Refugee Abstracts ,1990

Nicaragua Ralph Lee Woodward,1994 Annotation An annotated bibliography of publications dealing with all aspects of Nicaragua s past and present Sections on history politics foreign relations and the economy cover the country s progress from colonial domination to the present Includes a substantial number of publications on the country which appeared in the 1980s Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Conference Report ,1991 Comparative Urban and Community Research ,1992 Yearbook ,1993 Syrian Crisis, Syrian Refugees Juline Beaujouan,Amjed Rasheed,2019-12-18 This edited volume investigates the political and socioeconomic impact of the Syrian refugee crisis on Lebanon and Jordan and these countries mechanisms to cope with the rapid influx of refugees The sudden population increase has resulted in severe pressures on infrastructures and services as well as growing social tensions between the refugees and host communities These chapters use a transdisciplinary approach to analyse the repercussions of the humanitarian tragedy at three different levels 1 the changing governmental policies of the two countries towards the crisis 2 the different perceptions of the Jordanian and Lebanese local communities on the Syrian refugees and 3 the role played by NGOs and the civil society in both countries in dealing with protracted humanitarian emergencies Violence and Migration in Colombia Gabriel Murillo-Castaño,Marta Herrera,1991 From Conflict to Peace in a Changing World Deborah Eade,1998 This Working Paper reproduces articles and essays which first appeared in the quarterly journal Development in Practice The first part features papers by scholars agency representatives practitioners and policy makers on the ethical and legal dimensions of humanitarian endeavour The second part comprises a collection of original essays which were commissioned from some of the highly experienced practitioners in the field of development and conflict who attended the 1996 Symposium entitled Building Bridges in Southern Africa Conflict Reconstruction and Reconciliation in Times of Change which was co sponsored by the Centre for the Study of Violence and Reconciliation CSVR and Oxfam s South Africa Office The two sections address conflict related themes from a range of perspectives and together paint an informative picture of the moral and practical complexities of crisis and intervention Contributors include Michel Chossudovsky Jenny Pearce Hugo Slim Juan Somavia and Derek Summerfield The paper concludes with an annotated bibliography listing current and classic publications on the subject of development work in the context of crisis and armed conflict Urban Migrant Inclusion and Refugee Protection - Volume 2 Harald Bauder, Mary Boatemaa Setrana, 2025-08-01 This open access book offers the first comprehensive global overview of urban and local initiatives policies and practices towards including and protecting migrants in vulnerable situations and refugees The chapters in this volume illustrate the various urban solidarity practices in different world regions while highlighting important differences arising from geographical political geopolitical economic and demographic contexts The volume contains a mix of chapters that present comprehensive and state of the art literature reviews and the results of empirical case studies that offer original regional perspectives of migrant and refugee inclusion and exclusion and the policies politics and rights of urban solidarity A Decade of Ambiguity Gilda Pacheco, 1991
