broad spectrum of experts who reflect on Freud's Seduction Theory psychoanalysis and the reality of child abuse through the work of Jeffrey Masson Jeffrey Masson's The Assault on Truth: Freud's Suppression of the Seduction Theory 1984 is arguably the most controversial book on psychoanalysis in the last century It provoked a furore from mainstream psychoanalysis yet was well received by the emerging international trauma field and became a bestseller Four decades on a group of international scholars and professionals revisit Masson's original work and reflect on the lessons that can be taken from the saga Was the reaction of Masson's peers tied to the fact that he had accused Freud of being less than heroic or was it that he confronted psychoanalysis with a very uncomfortable truth This book examines how The Assault on Truth came to be written why it sparked such an extreme reaction and the issues Masson was grappling with Complete with an extended Foreword by John Briere a luminary of the modern trauma field this book will be essential reading for practitioners students and researchers involved in contemporary psychoanalysis psychotherapy psychology and especially trauma care women's mental health child safety and the study of memory The Seduction Theory in Its Second Century Michael I. Psychoanalysts from diverse backgrounds Freudian Sullivanian classical interpersonal and self psychological discuss What is the Seduction Hypothesis The Traumas of Everyday Life and Severely Traumatized Patients The Assault on Truth Jeffrey Moussaieff Masson, 1985 In 1896 Sigmund Freud presented his revolutionary seduction theory arguing that acts of sexual abuse and violence inflicted on children are the direct cause of adult mental illness Nine years later Freud completely reversed his position insisting that these sexual memories were actually fantasies that never happened Why did Freud retract the seduction theory And why has the psychoanalytic community gone to such lengths to conceal that retraction In this landmark book drawing on his unique access to formerly sealed and hidden papers Jeffrey Moussaieff Masson dares to uncover the truth about this critical turning point in Freud s career and its enduring impact on the theory and practice of psychoanalysis The Assault on Truth reveals a reality that neither Freud nor his followers could bear to face Bracing in its honesty gripping its revelations this is the book that prompted Masson s break with the psychoanalytic community and launched his subsequent brilliant career as an independent thinker and writer

Inventing the Child John Zornado, 2013-10-18 Now in paperback Inventing the Child is a highly entertaining humorous and at times acerbic account of what it means to be a child and a parent in America at the dawn of the new millennium J Zornado explores the history and development of the concept of childhood starting with the works of Calvin Freud and Rousseau and culminating with the modern consumer childhood of Dr Spock and television The volume discusses major media depictions of childhood and examines the ways in which parents use different forms of media to swaddle educate and entertain their children Zornado argues that the stories we tell our children contain the ideologies of the dominant culture which more often than not promote happiness at all costs materialism as the way to happiness and above all obedience to the dominant order

The Interpretation of the Flesh Teresa Brennan, 2002-09-11 The riddle of femininity like Freud s reference to women s sexuality as a dark continent has been treated as a romantic aside or a sexist evasion rather than a problem to be solved In this first comprehensive study Teresa Brennan suggests that by placing these theories in the context of Freud s work overall we will begin to understand why femininity was such a riddle for Freud

Film as a Medium of Seduction Marcus Stiglegger, 2024-03-14 The seduction theory defines film in a broader sense as a medium of seduction based on the French concept of séduction. It is a theoretical approach influenced by continental philosophy and classical film theory linked to a three stage analytical model. The book introduces the theoretical foundations and using various classical and contemporary examples from film history presents a genuine method of film analysis.

Listening to Trauma, 2014-11-25 Interviews and intimate photographic portraits of witnesses to the collective and cultural significance of trauma. This new collection from Cathy Caruth features interviews with a diverse group of leaders in the theorization of and response to traumatic experience in the twentieth and twenty first centuries. Crossing the boundaries of discipline and profession, Caruth's subjects include literary theorists and critics, psychoanalysts, psychiatrists, psychologists, political activists, filmmakers, public intellectuals, institutional leaders and researchers. Exploring the intertwining of the intellectual and personal dimensions of experience, each interview is accompanied by Caruth's intimate photographic portrait of its subject. Caruth chose her subjects because of their impact on her thinking as well as their significant role as witnesses to the collective and cultural significance of trauma. The individuals profiled here are innovators in the theory of trauma: Part I in the clinical activist or testimonial interventions in trauma; Part II in the creation or modification of institutions that provide therapeutic, artistic or legal responses to traumatic events; Part III: Two of the interviews first appeared in Caruth's landmark 1995 work Trauma: Explorations in Memory. The rest were conducted between 2011 and 2013 after the field of trauma studies expanded significantly. Representing both the foundation of trauma research and cutting edge approaches to the topic, this collection will be useful to practitioners with an interest in post traumatic stress disorder as well as scholars exploring the multiple dimensions of profound human experience. A portion of the proceeds from sales of this book will go to the Grady Nia Project for abused, suicidal and low income African American women.
