Seeing And Believing Theology And Art:

Seeing and Believing William Arthur Purdy, 1976 Seeing and Believing Ellen T. Armour, 2023-07-04 Social media platforms are often denounced as bubbles or echo chambers In this view what we see tends to reinforce what we already believe and what we already believe shapes what we see Yet social movements such as Black Lives Matter rely heavily on the widespread dissemination of digital photographs and videos through social media In at least some cases visual images can challenge normative and normalized ways of grasping the world and prompt their viewers to see differently and even bring people together Seeing and Believing marshals religious resources to recast the significance of digital images in the struggle for social justice Ellen T Armour examines what distinguishes digital photography from its analogue predecessor and places the circulation of digital images in the broader context of virtual visual cultures She explores the challenges and opportunities that visually saturated social media landscapes present for users and organizers Despite the power of digital platforms and algorithms possibilities for disruption and resistance emerge from how people engage with these systems Armour offers ways of seeing drawn from Christianity and found in other religious traditions to help us break with entrenched habits and rethink how we engage with the images that grab our attention Developing theological perspectives on the power and peril of photography and technology Seeing and Believing provides suggestions for navigating the new media landscape that can spark what Armour calls photographic insurrection The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the Arts Frank Burch Brown, 2018 This volume offers 37 original essays from leading scholars on the crucial topics issues methods and resources for studying and teaching religion and the arts Seeing Is Believing Richard Vance Goodwin, 2022-07-19 In this study in IVP Academic's STA series theologian Richard Goodwin considers how the images that constitute film might be a conduit of God's revelation By considering works by Stanley Kubrick Martin Scorsese Terrence Malick and more Goodwin argues that by inviting emotional responses film images can be a medium of divine revelation

Religion and Art in the Heart of Modern Manhattan Aaron Rosen, 2017-07-28 When you're in New York the sculptor Louise Nevelson once said you're in perpetual resurrection She might have said the same thing about St Peter's Lutheran Church set in the heart of midtown Manhattan In the 1970s the church made a radical move scrapping its neo gothic building for a sleek modern structure in the shadow of a skyscraper The transformation was not just architectural Inside Nevelson created a shimmering chapel while over the years artists and designers such as Willem de Kooning Kiki Smith and Massimo and Lella Vignelli produced works for the sanctuary This fusion of modern art architecture and design was complemented by an innovative jazz ministry including funerals for Billy Strayhorn and John Coltrane and performances by Duke Ellington and other jazz legends For the first time this volume examines the astounding cultural output of this single church Just as importantly the story of St Peter's serves as a springboard for wider reflections on the challenges and possibilities which arise when religion and art intersect in the modern city Working from a wide range of disciplines including art history theology musicology and cultural studies a distinguished group of scholars demonstrate that this church at the center of New York City deserves an equally central place in contemporary scholarship

Religion and the Arts: History and Method Diane Apostolos-Cappadona, 2017-11-06 In Religion and the Arts: History and Method Diane Apostolos Cappadona presents an overview of the 19th century origins of this discrete field of study and its methodological journey to the present day through issues of repatriation museum exhibitions and globalization Apostolos Cappadona suggests that the fluidity and flexibility of the study of religion and the arts has expanded like an umbrella since the 1970s and the understanding that art was simply a visual exegesis of texts to now support the study of material popular and visual culture as well as gender She also delivers a careful analysis of the evolution of thought from traditional iconographies to the transformations once scholars were influenced by response theory and challenged by globalization and technology Religion and the Arts: History and Method offers an indispensable introduction to the questions and perspectives essential to the study of this field

Art and the Religious Impulse Eric Michael Mazur, 2002 This collection explores the relationship between religion and the arts and challenges presumptions held in society about these two fields Topics covered include church architecture folk art nineteenth century classical music contemporary fiction recent film performance art and the battles over public funding of the arts

Eyes Wide Open William D. Romanowski, 2007-02-01 Grounded in Christian principles this accessible and engaging book offers an informed and fascinating approach to popular culture William D Romanowski provides affectionate yet astute analysis of familiar well loved movies and television characters from Indiana Jones to Homer Simpson and he speaks with historical depth and expertise on films from Casablanca to Crash and music from Bruce Springsteen to U2 Romanowski's confessional approach affirms a role for popular culture in faithful living Practical analytical approaches to content meaning and artistic style offer the tools to participate responsibly and imaginatively in popular cultural activities An engaging read this new edition introduces students and thoughtful readers to popular culture one of the most influential forces in contemporary society

Recollections and Reconsiderations Margaret R. Miles, 2018-12-18 Several years before his death Augustine of Hippo reviewed his published works commenting on his purpose in writing each and correcting from his present perspective the mistakes he noticed Inspired by Augustine's Retractationes Miles's Recollections and Reconsiderations undertakes a similar project a critical review of almost fifty years of her publications Rereading and rethinking in chronological order effectively bonds life and thought into a corpus a body of work with consistent values and interests Such a review would be an illuminating project for any longtime scholar student both rewarding and humbling an exercise in self knowledge Informed by a lifetime of studying Christian traditions Miles concludes by describing both endemic problems with Christianity and what she sees is its essence and beauty

Salvation from Cinema Crystal Downing, 2015-10-23 Salvation from Cinema offers something new to the burgeoning field of religion and film the religious significance of film technique Discussing the history of both cinematic devices and film theory Crystal Downing argues that attention to the material medium echoes Christian doctrine about the materiality of Christ's body as the medium of salvation. Downing cites Jewish, Muslim, Buddhist, and Hindu perspectives on film in order to compare and clarify the significance of the medium within the frameworks of multiple traditions. This book will be useful to professors and students interested in the relationship between religion and film.
