Seeking Racial Justice An Insiders Memoir Of The Movement For Aboriginal Advancement 1938 1978

Jennifer Barrett,Avril Alba,Dirk Moses

Seeking Racial Justice An Insiders Memoir Of The Movement For Aboriginal Advancement 1938 1978:

Seeking Racial Justice Jack Horner, 2004 The author's personal account of his developing consciousness as a white player in the black theatre of Indigenous Australian affairs and in particular his work with FCAATSI The book is also a tribute to the diverse Aboriginal and non Aboriginal individuals and groups who dedicated themselves to the cause from 1938 to 1978

A Higher Authority: Indigenous Transnationalism and Australia Ravi De Costa, 2012 This important book recovers the long tradition of indigenous transnationalism contact with external people institutions ideas throughout Australia's history from before white settlement to the present

Blackburns Carolyn Rasmussen, 2019-03-05 When socialist barrister and aspiring member of parliament Maurice Blackburn met Doris Hordern ardent feminist and campaign secretary to Vida Goldstein neither had marriage in their imagined futures But they fell in love with each other as much as with their individual aspirations to change the world for the better Theirs would be an exacting partnership as they held one another to the highest ideals They worked as elected members of parliaments and community activists influencing conscription laws benefits for working men and women atomic bomb tests civil rights and Indigenous recognition Together they shook Australia

Breaking the Silence Alison Holland, 2019-11-19 Breaking the Silence recovers the conflicted politics of Aboriginal affairs in the first decades of the twentieth century From 1905 when the report of the controversial Roth Royal Commission in Western Australia was made known to the public to the eve of World War II the condition status and treatment of Aboriginal Australians were leading social questions that generated much discontent and underscored the awakening of a national conscience Styled the new public defenders lobbied governments to develop policies to ensure viable Aboriginal futures In charting aspects of this politics Alison Holland uncovers the defenders programs for reform and the responses of governments to them She shows how the consternation of the defenders was disproportionate to political will Governments didn't listen or hear They viewed the issues and solutions in different ways Where defenders saw a humanitarian crisis governments identified a colour problem in White Australia and developed policies to eradicate it Breaking the Silence shows that there was no great Australian silence on this question in the first half of the twentieth century While the history books may have been silent the politics on the ground in the press the auditorium parliament university church and mission were anything but Holland asks why this was so What form did this politics take what was at stake and what were the outcomes In answering these questions the book provides important historical context for the consternation and debates still being had in the Australian polity over Aboriginal affairs

Aboriginal Black Power and the Rise of the Australian Black Panther Party, 1967-1972 Alyssa L. Trometter, 2022-01-01 Examining transnational ties between the USA and Australia this book explores the rise of the Aboriginal Black Power Movement in the 1960s and early 1970s Aboriginal adaptation of the American Black Power movement paved the way for future forms of radical Aboriginal resistance including the eventual emergence of the Australian Black Panther Party Through analysis of archival material including untouched government records previously unexamined newspapers and interviews conducted with both Australian and American activists this book investigates the complex and varied process of developing the Black Power movement in a uniquely Australian context Providing a social and political account of Australian activism across Victoria New South Wales and Queensland the author illustrates the fragmentation of Aboriginal Black Power marked by its different leaders protests and propaganda

The Holocaust Museum and Human Rights Jennifer Barrett,Avril Alba,Dirk Moses,2025-01-28
Interrogates the global and often controversial phenomenon of Holocaust and human rights museums Spanning six continents Europe Australia Africa Asia North America and South America this edited collection offers a comparative transnational study of Holocaust and human rights museums that foregrounds the overlapping and often contested work these institutions do in narrating and memorializing histories of genocide and human rights abuses for a public audience Museums that link the Holocaust with social justice human rights and genocide prevention have been founded in many countries for example the Kazerne Dossin Memorial Museum in Belgium the Anne Frank House in the Netherlands and the Johannesburg Holocaust and Genocide Centre in South Africa making Holocaust and human rights museums a global phenomenon It is not uncommon for these institutions to court controversy by linking the Holocaust to human rights issues in their locales and abroad Some begin from a Holocaust core and extrapolate from this history to address broader concerns while others integrate the Holocaust as a or at times the case study par excellence of human rights abuses Other institutions that may not explicitly focus on the Holocaust continue to engage these representational practices to highlight other instances of genocide and human rights abuses The case studies in this book illuminate the convergences between Holocaust and human rights museums in their demands for social justice and reparation educational and activist purpose design principles and curatorial choices But it also shows how these museums can also be sites of contestation around how stories of suffering courage and survival are told whose stories are prioritized and who is consulted Although Holocaust museums were once the most influential form of representation of human rights issues in the international museum and heritage fields they are now in dialogue visually spatially methodologically with museums and memorial sites concerned with human rights more broadly Interrogating debates in both museology and Holocaust memory studies this volume reveals how institutions dedicated to these concerns have become active and influential contributors to local national and transnational dialogues about human rights Contributors Avril Alba Brook Andrew Jennifer Barrett Jennifer Carter Danielle Celermajer Steven Cooke Donna Lee Frieze Shirli Gilbert Sulamith Graefenstein Christoph Hanzig Vannessa Hearman Rosanne Kennedy Marcia Langton Edwina Light Wendy Lipworth A Dirk Moses Tali Nates Jessica Neath Michael Robertson Amy Sodaro Garry Walter

Decolonizing Solidarity Clare Land,2015-07-15 In this highly original and much needed book Clare Land interrogates the often fraught endeavours of activists from colonial backgrounds seeking to be politically supportive of Indigenous struggles Blending key theoretical and practical questions Land argues that the predominant impulses which drive middle class settler activists to support Indigenous people cannot lead to successful alliances and meaningful social change unless they are significantly transformed through a process of both public political action and critical self reflection Based on a wealth of in depth original research and focussing in particular on Australia where despite strident challenges the vestiges of British law and cultural power have restrained the nation s emergence out of colonizing dynamics Decolonizing Solidarity provides a vital resource for those involved in Indigenous activism and scholarship Aborigines & Activism Jennifer Clark, 2008 In a provocative reappraisal of the 1960s Aborigines Activism recontextualises the history of Aboriginal activism within wider international movements Concurrent to anti war protests women s movements burgeoning civil rights activism in the United States and the struggles of South Africa s anti apartheid freedom righters dramatic political changes took place in assimilated Australia that challenged its status quo From the early days of grassroots resistance through to Charles Perkins 1965 Freedom Ride the 1967 Referendum Canberra s Tent Embassy and beyond this is the story of the Great Southern Land s racial awakening a time when Aborigines and their white supporters achieved paradigmatic shifts in the search for equality justice and human dignity that still has powerful implications for 21st century Australia This is an engaging study of the stories of racial awakening in Australia that marked the coming of the wind of change Through rigorous research the author shows how supporters of Indigenous Australians and their struggles for equality pushed Australia into the 60s literally and figuratively The book also puts the Australian experience of the 60s into an international perspective portrayed as unique but not in isolation

Teacher for Justice Heather Goodall, Helen Randerson, Devleena Ghosh, 2019-08-26 Teacher for Justice is a major contribution to the history of the women s movement working class activism and Australian political internationalism But it is more than this By focusing on the life of Lucy Woodcock an unrecognised and under researched figure this book rewrites the history of twentieth century Australia from the perspective of an activist who challenged conventions to fight for gender race and class equality exploring the complex and multi layered intersections of these aspects It explores Woodcock s personal relationships and the circles she mixed in and the friendships she forged as well as the conventions she challenged as a single woman in possibly a same sex relationship The book makes a key contribution to the history of progressive education and the experience of women teachers Above all it charts the life of a transnational figure who made connections globally and in particular with refugees and with women in India and the Asian region It is a detailed thoroughly researched and richly textured history which places Woodcock within the context of the times in which she lived Joy Damousi Professor of History University of Melbourne Meet Lucy Woodcock a complex undaunted woman in a tough and changing world From her role as a public school principal in Depression and wartime to her union and feminist organising to her transnational engagements for peace this clear and thoughtful book brings to life forgotten forms of activism It s the gripping story of how Lucy navigated the minefields of gender class race and coloniality to change her world Raewyn Connell Professor Emerita University of Sydney Just over a century ago the last of the pupil teachers Lucy Woodcock co founded the NSW Teachers Federation So many of the principles and traditions that underpin our union today can be traced back to the lifelong work of Lucy Woodcock She fought for the industrial rights of teachers deep in the knowledge of the broader social and economic context in which she lived and worked Too often the role of working class women whose influence is profound is ignored This biography installs Lucy Woodcock into her rightful place as pivotal player in the history of twentieth century Australia Maurie Mulheron President NSW Teachers Federation A fascinating history of a fascinating woman Lucy s interests were so broad and so modern equal pay racism internationalism Indigenous rights and anti war struggles were all part of Lucy s world She had a vision beyond nationalism championed the cause of world peace when peace was being treated as a dirty word and saw women as global citizens Lucy was one of the heroes of our disgracefully unfinished Equal Pay struggle Hon Dr Meredith Burgmann anti racism and peace activist former President of the NSW Legislative Council Spinning the Dream Anna Haebich,2008-03-01 In Spinning the Dream multi award winning historian Anna Haebich re evaluates the experience of Assimilation in Australia providing a meticulously researched and masterfully written assessment of its implications for Australia s Indigenous and ethnic minorities and for immigration and refugee policy
