Selected Chapters From Film History An Introduction:

Doing Digital Film History Sarah-Mai Dang, Tim van der Heijden, Christian Gosvig Olesen, 2024-12-30 How has the digital turn shaped the practices of film historical research and teaching While computational approaches have been used by film historians since the 1960s and 1970s the arrival and use of digital tools and methods in recent decades has fundamentally changed the ways we search analyze interpret present and so think and write about film history from digital archival and curatorial practices data driven search and analysis of film historical collections to the visualization and dissemination of film historical materials online While film historians have increasingly embraced the new possibilities brought by digital technologies their practical epistemological and methodological implications need further exploration What opportunities does the digitization of film historical sources provide for film historians What new questions can be raised by using digital methods What new perspectives emerge from analyzing interpreting and visualizing film historical data at the levels of both close and distant or scalable reading and viewing By focusing on the concepts tools and practices of digital film historiography this edited volume aims to contribute to a better understanding and critical reflection on the changes and continuities of doing film history in the digital age EBOOK: Film Art: An Introduction David

Bordwell, 2013-08-16 Film is an art form with a language and an aesthetic all its own Since 1979 David Bordwell and Kristin Thompson's Film Art has been the best selling and most widely respected introduction to the analysis of cinema Taking a skills centered approach supported by examples from many periods and countries the authors help students develop a core set of analytical skills that will enrich their understanding of any film in any genre In depth examples deepen students appreciation for how creative choices by filmmakers affect what viewers experience and how they respond Film Art is generously illustrated with more than 1 000 frame enlargements taken directly from completed films providing concrete illustrations of key concepts

The Challenge of the Silver Screen Freek L. Bakker, 2009 In 1897 only two years after the invention of film the first feature film about Jesus appeared This and other films about Jesus became examples for and an inspiration for films on other important religious figures like Rama Buddha and Muhammad Although religious leaders did not always approve of these films they did find a ready audience among believers This book explores these films and looks at how these films dealt with the fundamental question of portraying an individual thought to have either divine status or a very special and unique status among human beings This book will thus benefit not only students of religious film but also those studying the portrayal of central religious figures in the contemporary world

Paul Watson Paul Wells and William Wittington American Film History Cynthia Lucia,Roy Grundmann,Art Simon,2015-06-25 From the American underground film to the blockbuster superhero this authoritative collection of introductory and specialized readings explores the core issues and developments in American cinematic history during the second half of the twentieth century through the present day Considers essential subjects that have shaped the American film industry from the impact of television and CGI to the rise of independent and underground film from the impact of the civil rights feminist and LGBT movements to that of 9 11 Features a student friendly structure dividing coverage into the periods 1960 1975 1976 1990 and 1991 to the present day each of which opens with an historical overview Brings together a rich and varied selection of contributions by established film scholars combining broad historical social and political contexts with detailed analysis of individual films including Midnight Cowboy Nashville Cat Ballou Chicago Back to the Future Killer of Sheep Daughters of the Dust Nothing But a Man Ali Easy Rider The Conversation The Texas Chain Saw Massacre Longtime Companion The Matrix The War Tapes the Batman films and selected avant garde and documentary films among many others Additional online resources such as sample syllabi which include suggested readings and filmographies for both general and specialized courses will be available online May be used alongside American Film History Selected Readings Origins to 1960 to provide an authoritative study of American cinema from its earliest days through the new millennium The Routledge Companion to American Film History Pamela Robertson Wojcik,Paula J. Massood,2025-02-12 Presenting new and diverse scholarship this collection brings together original essays that explore American film history from a fresh perspective Comprising an introduction and 34 chapters written by leading scholars from around the globe and edited by Pamela Robertson Wojcik and Paula J Massood this collection offers discussions of the American film industry from previously unexplored vantage points Rather than follow a chronological format as with most film histories this Companion offers a multiplicity of approaches to historiography and is arranged according to often underdeveloped or overlooked areas in American film including topics such as alternate archives hidden labor histories of style racialized technologies cinema s material cultures spectators and fans transnational film production intermedial histories history in and about films and the historical afterlives of cinema An exciting collection for serious film studies students and scholars interested in new perspectives and fresh approaches to thinking about and doing American film history Words and Images on the Screen Ágnes Pethő,2009-03-26 The screen has never been merely a canvas for the images to be displayed but also to quote Jean Luc Godard a blank page a surface for inscriptions and a stage for all kinds of linguistic occurrences be their audible or visual Word did not come into the world of cinema at the time of the talkies but has been a primordial medial companion that has shaped the cinematic experience from its very beginnings This volume offers a collection of essays that question the role of words and images in the context of moving pictures covering a wide area of their interconnectedness How can we analyse literary adaptations What is the role of adaptations in the evolution of specific national cinemas In what way are written texts used in films Is the model of the word and image relations used in silent films still applicable today What major paradigms can be discerned within the multiplicity of ways Jean Luc Godard s cinema plays with words and images Are these models of modernist or postmodern cinema reflected in films of other directors like R W Fassbinder How do avant garde works deal with the word and image debate What are the connections of animation or computer games with verbal text and narrative What is the phenomenon of jet setting and how does it connect to the ideological implications of the relations between the culture of books and films What happens when Hamlet is completely rewritten reflecting the ideology of late capitalism What happens from the point of view of literariness or rejection of literariness when films are made vehicles of national propaganda How do words get mediated through images These are some of the questions addressed in the present volume by in depth case studies of cinematic intermediality or more general surveys regarding cinema s long lasting liaisons with language or literature

Framing the Sex Scene: A New Take on Israeli Film History Naomi Rolef, 2021-02-22 This book retells the history of Israeli film in the 1960s and 1970s in sex scenes Through close readings of the first sex scenes in mainstream Israeli movies from this period it explores the cultural and social contexts in which these movies were made More specifically it discusses how notions of collective identity individual agency and the public and private spheres are inscribed into and negotiated in sex scenes especially in light of the historical events that marked these decades This study thus pushes away from the traditional academic perception of Israeli film and opens up new ways of understanding how it has developed in recent decades It draws on a growing international body of academic literature on the cinematic representation of sex in order to illuminate the particularities of the Israeli context in the 1960s and 1970s Apart from film scholars and scholars of Israeli film this study also addresses readers interested in Israeli cultural history more broadly

Film Criticism in Cape Town 1928-1930 Michael Eckardt, 2004-04-01 This book examines the development of film criticism in Cape Town s daily press from 1928 to 1930 using film reviews from the Cape Times and Die Burger The character of film criticism in the period under discussion is explained by describing the general function of film criticism as well as comparing the local with the international film press The basis for the comparative analysis is a list of films screened in three selected cinemas in Cape Town
