Developing Future-ready Learners for a Global Age Suzanne S. Choo, Woon Chia Liu, Bee Leng Chua, 2024-12-02 Suzanne S Choo Woon Chia Liu and Bee Leng Chua offer a dynamic look into the tripartite relationship between education research policy and practice that characterizes Singapore s changing education landscape Over the years Singapore has garnered increasing attention internationally for its world class education system Pushing back against the stereotypical notions of exam and teacher centric education in Asia the contributors to this volume discuss opportunities as well as challenges in Singapore s innovation towards constructivist critical culturally responsive and cosmopolitan forms of learning Highlighting the pedagogical innovation and its context in Singapore s teacher education and schools the authors bridge theory and practice by providing an understanding of innovative practices informed by key shifts in Singapore s education policies and the key conceptual principles informing these practices More importantly it provides on the ground empirical insights into the ways these innovative pedagogical practices are enacted in the classroom and in teacher education programmes Each chapter provides an in depth understanding of how these pedagogies are applied across various subject disciplines including guided problem solving in Mathematics games based pedagogy in Science multimodal literacies in language ethical criticism in Literature Nonlinear Pedagogy in Physical Education multicultural approaches in music and dialogic pedagogy in drama among others Balancing theoretical and empirical focus this resourceful text will be of interest to students researchers and practitioners in educational development pedagogy and teacher education as well as policymakers across international fields in education

Gender in Early Childhood Nicola Yelland, 2002-09-11 This book will explore the ways in which young children perceive themselves and are viewed by others in terms of their gendered identities as individuals and as members of society It considers research from a variety of perspectives in the context of home family and school Topics covered include the construction of gender from the time the child is conceived the politics of category membership analyses of play and art making young children s experiences with technology the influence of popular culture on the body image gender equity policies in early childhood education understanding sexual orientation An examination and reflection of the issues will enable educators to improve their practice and have a greater understanding of the families and the children whom they teach The diverse range and content of the research will make this book a valuable resource for all those interested in the education of young children This book covers the issue of gender expectations of children with disabilities and also discusses young childrens experiences with technology and the ways in which they feel about their bodies This book will be of great interest to all early childhood educators who are concerned about the ways in which the home and school impact on the lives of young children in terms of how they view themselves and how others view them Trainee teachers will find this book helpful in developing their own attitudes understandings and behaviours in relation to gender equity and young children
