death or dishonour Two ways lay before him to fight or not to fight and his sense of injured honour made him without hesitation choose the first and he waited in no ordinary anxiety for the dawn when Alister Macdonald who was absent on duty would return to the quarters of the regiment Next morning when the grey daylight was beginning faintly to show the dark courts and gloomy arcades of the Alcazar he sprung from his couch which had been nothing else than his cloak laid on the polished floor tiles and undergoing a hasty toilette he was about to set forth in search of Macdonald when Lieutenant Chisholm one of the officers entered What up already Stuart said he I hope you are not on any duty No Why Because Lisle has asked me to wait upon you Upon me asked Ronald with a frown of surprise Upon me Chisholm Yes of course you will remember what occurred in the cathedral last night How could I ever forget Mr Lisle under its roof insulted me most grossly replied Ronald his lips growing white with anger I was just about to seek Macdonald to give him a message but Mr Lisle has anticipated me For Heaven s sake Stuart let us endeavour to settle this matter amicably Think of the remorse which an honourable survivor must always feel A hundred men slain in action are nothing to one life lost in a duel Address these words to your principal they are lost on me but you are an excellent fellow Chisholm It is long since we have had an affair of this sort among us and Cameron is quite averse to this mode of settling disputes I shall not consult his opinion or that of any other man in defence of my own honour said Ronald haughtily As you please replied the other with an air of pique Lisle and you have long been on very distant terms and the officers have always predicted that the matter would terminate in this way Curse their impertinent curiosity And so Lisle calls me out in consequence of the high words we exchanged in the cathedral last night That is one reason the least one I believe He mentioned that his sister Miss Lisle Stay Chisholm I will hear no more of this cried Stuart then suddenly changing his mind added Ah well his sister Miss Alice Lisle Go on Faith Stuart you seem confoundedly confused Do settle this matter in peace Lisle has told me the story in confidence and I think you have been to blame indeed you have Send Lisle an apology for I assure you he is boiling with passion and will not yield a hair s breadth To be continue in this ebook
