Lori The Circle Of Friends I:

Lori's Lessons Carol Ferring Shepley, 2013-10 When Lori Patin first received her diagnosis of Parkinson's at age fifty five she wanted to cry until she died When she made up her mind to fight the disease her husband and caregiver Bob took a stand beside her In Lori's Lessons author Carol Ferring Shepley tells the story of the Patins love throughout the course of the disease and how it affected their lives But this memoir is about much more than Lori's struggle against Parkinson's disease a progressive incurable degenerative disorder that affects the central nervous system It's also the story of someone who has faced a terrible challenge met it head on and refused to concede In the struggle she has learned vital lessons about life itself Lori's Lessons shares how for fifteen years Lori fought relentlessly but in the summer of 2011 she lay in a coma At the time Bob thought the best he could hope for was to bring her home with a nurse Thanks to a miraculous remission however today she doesn't even have tremors Offering inspiration and hope Lori's Lessons presents a 360 degree perspective on how Lori attacked the disease She has taken many pharmaceuticals but the two strongest drugs in her regimen are hope and faith

The Power of Female Friendship Paul Dobransky, L. A. Stamford, 2008-05-27 A compassionate practical and science based guide to finding friends for life Psychiatrist Paul Dobransky author of The Secret Psychology of How We Fall in Love once again looks to the brain this time to examine the full range of female friendships A recent study has shown that women have fewer friends than they used to In the years after college and before children and even after that many women find that they have fewer friends and new ones are harder to make Taking his three parts of the brain theory Dr Dobransky breaks down the primal codes of friendship that many women aren't even aware of and gives scientifically grounded advice for understanding how to be a better friend and how to cultivate new friendships Women of all ages who are searching for deeper relationships or are trying to break free of a toxic friendship will find help and hope in this enlightening and prescriptive exploration of how the brain makes friends

Lori L. Diane Wolfe, 2004-04 Dreaming of a Gold Medal Lori had spent her entire life preparing to compete in the Olympics Swimming was the only thing she knew and Lori poured endless hours into her training every day She was focused determined and had the attitude of a winner There was something missing though Lori was smart beautiful and ever the optimist but she was always alone There was no one to share her victories with and to encourage her to greater heights Then one fateful day she met a man who would change her life forever Through Jason Lori discovers her inner strength and begins to overcome her fear and isolation As his affections renew her hope Lori's joy and love ripples out to touch those around her She realizes that one person's passion and belief can make a difference Will it be enough to help her achieve her lifelong dream though Or will the struggles and sacrifices be too much for love to survive
