Dixon,2008 This book presents an interdisciplinary and inclusive view of nineteenth century art observed from the vantage point of the new twenty first century The areas of expertise represented by the thirty essays herein span the full range of nineteenth century studies and include discussions of such artistic styles as realism impressionism romanticism and art nouveau as well as early twentieth century movements that owe their formative influence to the nineteenth century Topics span the historical gamut from revivalism to the roots of modernism considering along the way such themes as the depiction of women Orientalism art criticism evolutionary theory political propaganda history painting landscape and national identity Aspects of art display public monuments and international exhibitions shed light on the roles of government and individuals in the dissemination of artistic styles and subject matter Unique in this collection is an emphasis on the marketing of art both in America and abroad which considers the important financial and commercial issues that continue to influence viewers beliefs and perceptions Most important this book demonstrates that the rich field of nineteenth century studies continues to inspire discovery and creativity Publisher description

A Globalised Visual Culture? Fabio Guidetti, Katharina Meinecke, 2020-07-31 Late Antique artefacts and the images they carry attest to a highly connected visual culture from ca 300 to 800 C E On the one hand the same decorative motifs and iconographies are found across various genres of visual and material culture irrespective of social and economic differences among their users for instance in mosaics architectural decoration and luxury arts silver plate textiles ivories as well as in everyday objects such as tableware lamps and pilgrim vessels On the other hand they are also spread in geographically distant regions mingled with local elements far beyond the traditional borders of the classical world At the same time foreign motifs especially of Germanic and Sasanian origin are attested in Roman territories This volume aims at investigating the reasons behind this seemingly globalised visual culture spread across the Late Antique world both within the borders of the former Roman and later Byzantine Empire and beyond bringing together diverse approaches characteristic of different national and disciplinary traditions The presentation of a wide range of relevant case studies chosen from different geographical and cultural contexts exemplifies the vast scale of the phenomenon and demonstrates the benefit of addressing such a complex historical question with a combination of different theoretical approaches

Roman Charity Jutta Gisela Sperling, 2016-10-15 Roman Charity investigates the iconography of the breastfeeding daughter from the perspective of queer sexuality and erotic maternity The volume explores the popularity of a topic that appealed to early modern observers for its eroticizing shock value its ironic take on the concept of Catholic charity and its implied critique of patriarchal power structures It analyses why early modern viewers found an incestuous adult breastfeeding scene good to think with and aims at expanding and queering our notions of early modern sexuality Jutta Gisela Sperling discusses the different visual contexts in which Roman Charity flourished and reconstructs contemporary horizons of expectation by reference to literary sources medical practice and legal culture
