

Discover Ohio's literary treasures

The Ohio Literary Trail celebrates the Buckeye State's role in shaping culture and literature worldwide. Along the trail, developed by the Ohioana Library Association, lie historic homes, museums, library collections and historical markers honoring great authors, poets and influencers of the literary landscape. Following the state's five geographic regions for convenient self-guided tours, curious explorers can walk in the footsteps of Harriet Beecher Stowe and poet Paul Laurence Dunbar. They can view renowned collections of comics, picture book art and Nancy Drew-themed artifacts. Or they can tour the home and farm of Pulitzer Prize winner and conservationist Louis Bromfield. Compiled with care by Betty Weibel, one of the trail's creators, this guide offers something unique for the armchair traveler and the road warrior alike.

Geographies of Flight William Merrill Decker, 2020-09-15 African American writing commonly represents New World topography as a set of entrapments contesting the open horizons, westward expansion, and individual freedom characteristic of the white Eurocentric literary tradition. Geographies of Flight Phillis Wheatley to Octavia Butler provides the first comprehensive treatment of the ways in which African American authors across three centuries have confronted the predicament of inhabiting space under conditions of bondage and structural oppression. William Merrill Decker examines how, in testifying to those conditions, fourteen black authors have sought to transform a national cartography that well into the twenty-first century reflects white supremacist assumptions These writers question the spatial dimensions of a mythic American liberty and develop countergeographies in which descendants of the African diaspora lay claim to the America they have materially and culturally created Tracking the testimonial voice in a range of literary genres Geographies of Flight explores themes of placement and mobility in the work of Phillis Wheatley Olaudah Equiano David Walker Frederick Douglass Harriet Jacobs Booker T Washington Ida B Wells Barnett W E B Du Bois Richard Wright Ralph Ellison Malcolm X James Baldwin Toni Morrison and Octavia Butler
