Parliament. House of Commons, 1900 The Politics of Cybersecurity in the Middle East James Shires, 2022-05-01 Cybersecurity is a complex and contested issue in international politics By focusing on the great powers the US the EU Russia and China studies in the field often fail to capture the specific politics of cybersecurity in the Middle East especially in Egypt and the GCC states For these countries cybersecurity policies and practices are entangled with those of long standing allies in the US and Europe and are built on reciprocal flows of data capital technology and expertise At the same time these states have authoritarian systems of governance more reminiscent of Russia or China including approaches to digital technologies centred on sovereignty and surveillance This book is a pioneering examination of the politics of cybersecurity in the Middle East Drawing on new interviews and original fieldwork James Shires shows how the label of cybersecurity is repurposed by states companies and other organisations to encompass a variety of concepts including state conflict targeted spyware domestic information controls and foreign interference through leaks and disinformation These shifting meanings shape key technological systems as well as the social relations underpinning digital development But however the term is interpreted it is clear that cybersecurity is an integral aspect of the region s contemporary politics Sinistrari Giles Ekins,2022-02-15

London 1888 After Satanist Edward Sinistrari is condemned to hang for ritual murder of four girls he escapes from the gallows at Newgate Prison leaving a bloody trail in his wake DCI Charles Collingwood is assigned to track Sinistrari down But just as he is closing in on his quarry Jack The Ripper begins his murderous rampage In a London awash with blood Collingwood is about to discover the full force of Sinistrari s diabolic powers and vengeance But who is he and can he be stopped Justice of the Peace ,1855
