New Hollywood What The Movies Did With The New Freedoms Of The Seventies:

The New Hollywood James Bernardoni, 2010-07-27 The Old Hollywood of studio stars and house directors began to break up in the 1960s Newly independent directors freed from budgetary and aesthetic limitations imposed by studio moguls were the New Hollywood Directors could develop their own styles hire whom they wanted and make movies that would dazzle jaded audiences Hollywood would never be the same What happened The author looks at the productions of the New Hollywood to answer that question Scene by scene analyses of some of the 70s most significant films i e Apocalypse Now Taxi Driver M A S H Annie Hall and American Graffiti assess both the successes and failures of the New Hollywood The Last Great American Picture Show Alexander Horwath, Thomas Elsaesser, Noel King, 2004 This publication is a major evaluation of the 1970s American cinema including cult film directors such as Bogdanovich Altman and Peckinpah New Hollywood Renate Hehr, 2003-06-11 The surprising successes of Bonnie and Clyde The Graduate and Easy Rider in the late 60 s marked a turning point in the history of American cinema A period of artistic renewal began of a kind that had never been possible before in America Affect Poetics of the New Hollywood Hauke Lehmann, 2019-12-02 How is affective experience produced in the cinema And how can we write a history of this experience By asking these questions this study by Hauke Lehmann aims at rethinking our conception of a critical period in US film history the New Hollywood as a moment of crisis that can neither be reduced to economic processes of adaption nor to a collection of masterpieces Rather the fine grained analysis of core films reveals the power of cinematic images to affect their audiences to confront them with the new The films of the New Hollywood redefine the divisions of the classical genre system in a radical way and thereby transform the way spectators are addressed affectively in the cinema The study describes a complex interplay between three modes of affectivity suspense paranoia and melancholy All three each in their own way implicate spectators in the deep seated contradictions of their own feelings and their ways of being in the world their relations to history to society and to cultural fantasy On this basis Affect Poetics of the New Hollywood projects an original conception of film history as an affective history which can be re written up to the present day The New Hollywood Peter Krämer, 2006-03-17 On December 8 1967 Time magazine put Bonnie and Clyde on its cover and announced The New Cinema Violence Sex Art The following decade has long been celebrated as a golden age in American film history In this innovative study Peter Kr mer offers a systematic discussion of the biggest hits of the period including The Graduate 1967 The Exorcist 1973 and Jaws 1975 He relates the distinctive features of these hits to changes in the film industry in its audiences and in American society at large New Wave, New Hollywood Gregory Frame, Nathan Abrams, 2021-09-23 As a period of film history The American New Wave ordinarily understood as beginning in 1967 and ending in 1980 remains a preoccupation for scholars and audiences alike In traditional accounts it is considered to be bookended by two periods of conservatism and viewed as a brief period of explosive creativity within the Hollywood system From Bonnie and Clyde to Heaven s Gate it produced films that continue to be watched discussed analysed and poured over It has however also become rigidly defined as a cinema of director auteurs who made a number of aesthetically and politically significant films This has led to marginalization and exclusion of many important artists and filmmakers as well as a temporal rigidity about what and who is considered part of the New Wave proper This collection seeks to reinvigorate debate around this area of film history It also looks in part to demonstrate the legacy of aesthetic experimentation and political radicalism after 1980 as part of the legacy of the New Wave Thanks to important new work that questions received scholarly wisdom reveals previously marginalised filmmakers and the films they made considers new genres personnel and films under the banner of New Wave New Hollywood and reevaluates the traditional approaches and perspectives on the films that have enjoyed most critical attention New Wave New Hollywood Reassessment Recovery Legacy looks to begin a new discussion about Hollywood cinema after 1967 Hollywood Film

1963-1976 Drew Casper,2011-03-01 Hollywood 1963 1976 chronicles the upheaval and innovation that took place in the American film industry during an era of pervasive cultural tumult Exploring the many ideologies embraced by an increasingly diverse Hollywood Casper offers a comprehensive canon covering the period s classics as well as its brilliant but overlooked masterpieces A broad overview and analysis of one of American film s most important and innovative periods Offers a new more expansive take on the accepted canon of the era Includes films expressing ideologies contrary to the misremembered leftist slant Explores and fully contextualizes the dominant genres of the 60s and 70s Grief in Contemporary Horror Cinema Erica Joan Dymond,2022-10-03 Over the course of the past two decades horror cinema around the globe has become increasingly preoccupied with the concept of loss Grief in Contemporary Horror Cinema Screening Loss examines the theme of grief as it is represented in both indie and mainstream films including works such as Jennifer Kent s watershed film The Babadook Juan Antonio Bayona s award sweeping El orfanato Ari Aster s genre straddling Midsommar and Lars von Trier s visually stunning Melancholia Analyzing depictions of grief ranging from the intimate grief of a small family to the collective grief of an entire nation the essays illustrate how these works serve to provide unity catharsis and sometimes healing

The Hollywood Renaissance Yannis Tzioumakis,Peter Krämer,2018-06-28 In December 1967 Time magazine put Bonnie and Clyde on its cover and proudly declared that Hollywood cinema was undergoing a renaissance For the next few years a wide range of formally and thematically challenging films were produced at the very centre of the American film industry often but by no means always combining success at the box office with huge critical acclaim both then and later This collection brings together acknowledged experts on American cinema to examine thirteen key films from the years 1966 to 1974 starting with Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? a major studio release which was in effect exempted from Hollywood's Production Code and thus helped to liberate American filmmaking from self censorship Long standing taboos to do with sex violence race relations drugs politics religion and much else could now be broken often in conjunction with extensive stylistic experimentation Whereas most previous scholarship has examined these developments through the prism of auteurism with its tight focus on film directors and their oeuvres the contributors to this collection also carefully examine production histories and processes In doing so they pay particular attention to the economic underpinnings and collaborative nature of filmmaking the influence of European art cinema as well as of exploitation experimental and underground films and the connections between cinema and other media notably publishing music and theatre Several chapters show how the innovations of the Hollywood Renaissance relate to further changes in American cinema from the mid 1970s onwards
