New Images of Man (Classic Reprint) Peter Selz,2016-10-23 Excerpt from New Images of Man Again in this generation a number Of painters and sculptors courageously aware of a time of dre found articulate expression for the wounds of existence This voice may dance and yell like a madman jean Dubuffet like the drunken ute playing maenads of Phrygia The revelations and complexities of mid twentieth century life have called forth a profound feeling of solitude and anxiety The imagery of man which has evolved from this reveals sometimes a new dignity sometimes despair but always the uniqueness of man as he confronts his fate Like Kierkegaard Heidegger Camus these artists are aware Of anguish and dread of life in which man precarious and vulnerable confronts the precipice is aware of dying as well as living Their response is often deeply human without making use of recognizable human imagery It is found for instance in Mark Rothko s expansive ominous surfaces of silent contemplation or in Jackson Pollock s wildly intensive act Of vociferous affirmation with its total commitment by the artist In the case of the painters and sculptors discussed here however a new human imagery unique to our century has been evolved Like the more abstract artists of the period these imagists take the human situation indeed the human predicament rather than formal structure as their starting point Existence rather than essence is of the greatest concern to them About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Peter Selz Paul J. Karlstrom,2012-01-02 This absorbing biography often conveyed through Peter Selz s own words traces the journey of a Jewish German immigrant from Hitler s Munich to the United States and on to an important career as a pioneer historian of modern art Paul J Karlstrom illuminates key historical and cultural events of the twentieth century as he describes Selz s extraordinary career from Chicago s Institute of Design New Bauhaus to New York s Museum of Modern Art during the transformative 1960s and as founding director of the University Art Museum at UC Berkeley Karlstrom sheds light on the controversial viewpoints that at times isolated Selz from his colleagues but nonetheless affirmed his conviction that significant art was always an expression of deep human experience The book also links Selz s long life story featuring close relationships with such major art figures as Mark Rothko Dore Ashton Willem de Kooning Sam Francis and Christo with his personal commitment to political engagement

A Broken Beauty Theodore L. Prescott,2005 A Broken Beauty examines recent ideas about beauty and the human image in light of the Western Classical and Christian traditions of the human figure The book s five essays trace the historical fusion of Classical and Christian ideas about beauty as well as their rejection by much modern art provocatively suggesting that the difficulties encountered by the beautiful in modernity may be related to a loss of faith This volume culminates in a look at fifteen postmodern North American artists whose haunting pieces unite brokenness and beauty in a way that is uncommon within contemporary art These artists like the book s essayists find significance in beauty that is cultivated amidst the perennial human struggle for goodness meaning and dignity
