Quiet Revolutionaries Sharon Thompson, 2022-09-08 This book tells the untold story of the Married Women's Association Unlike more conventional histories of family law which focus on legal actors it highlights the little known yet indispensable work of a dedicated group of life long activists Formed in 1938 the Married Women's Association took reform of family property law as its chief focus

The name is deceptively innocuous suggesting tea parties and charity fundraisers but in fact the MWA was often involved in dramatic confrontations with politicians civil servants and Law Commissioners The Association boasted powerful public figures including MP Edith Summerskill authors Vera Brittain and Dora Russell and barrister Helena Normanton They campaigned on matters that are still being debated in family law today Quiet Revolutionaries sheds new light upon legal reform then and now by challenging longstanding assumptions showing that piecemeal legislation can be an effective stepping stone to comprehensive reform and highlighting how unsuccessful bills though often now forgotten can still be important triggers for change Drawing upon interviews with members friends and family and thousands of archival documents the book is compulsory reading for lawyers legal historians and anyone who wishes to explore histories of law reform from the ground up Winner of the SLSA Socio Legal Theory and History Book Prize 2023 To listen to podcast episodes about the Married Women s Association featuring interviews and archival research visit quietrevolutionaries.podbean.com

Woman as Prophet in the Home and the World R. Mary Hayden Lemmons, 2016-09-15 This first ever interdisciplinary study of woman as prophet shows that in these troubling times ordinary women especially Christian women need to function as prophets by proclaiming in word and deed the indispensability of lovingly seeking the welfare of others More specifically social science shows that the person centered love prophesied by women prophets is able to meet interpersonal challenges within the home and world while philosophy and theology establish that women are able to excel as prophets due to the virtuous dispositions inculcated by femininity the choice to be caring a God centered spirituality and a pro life humanitarian personalist feminism that welcomes male collaborators Facilitating the ability of Christian women to prophesy love are Baptismal graces Thomistic virtues and a much needed prophetic Marian ecclesiology based on what John Paul II calls the prophetism of femininity These interdisciplinary findings provide an essential resource for educators and students of humanity the theology of women and evangelization These findings emerge first from an investigation into the cognitive and ontological underpinnings of what John Paul II called the feminine genius A second set of findings emerges from exploring the prophetic dimensions of the feminine genius secular feminism s need to adopt the insights of Christianity and the ability of femininity s prophetism to recast both femininity and feminism as Marian prophecies A third set of findings arises from analyzing the spirituality of women prophets within the Christian tradition by considering the conditions necessary for prophesying explicating requisite Thomistic virtues and delving into the spirituality of Hildegard Catherine of Siena Julian of Norwich and Teresa of Avila A fourth set of findings arises from innovative studies of polarization secularization lust romantic love the conditions whereby mothers with careers can flourish and the ability of nuns to combat racism in a small Midwestern town Overall these interdisciplinary investigations explicate the theology of women and show that women who prophesy love either in the order of grace or nature can help heal lives families and culture
