New Horizons in International Law Taslim Olawale Elias, 1979 New Horizons in International Law T.O. Elias, 2024-12-02 Proceedings of the American Society of International Law at Its Annual Meeting American Society of International Law, 1910 Proceedings of the American Society of International Law at Its ... Annual Meeting American Society of International Law. Annual Meeting, 1910 Internationalized Armed Conflicts in International Law Kubo Macak, 2018-07-19 This book provides the first comprehensive analysis of factors that transform a prima facie non international armed conflict NIAC into an international armed conflict IAC and the consequences that follow from this process of internationalization It examines in detail the historical development as well as the current state of the relevant rules of international humanitarian law The discussion is grounded in general international law complemented with abundant references to case law and illustrated by examples from twentieth and twenty first century armed conflicts In Part I the book puts forward a thorough catalogue of modalities of conflict internationalization that includes outside intervention State dissolution and recognition of belligerency It then specifically considers the legal qualification of complex situations that feature more than two conflict parties and contrasts the mechanism of internationalization of armed conflicts with the reverse process of de internationalization Part II of the book challenges the conventional wisdom that members of non State armed groups do not normally benefit from combatant status It argues that the majority of fighters belonging to non State armed groups in most types of internationalized armed conflicts are in fact eligible for combatant status Finally Part III turns to belligerent occupation traditionally understood as a leading example of a notion that cannot be transposed to armed conflicts occurring in the territory of a single State By contrast the book argues in favour of the applicability of the law of belligerent occupation to internationalized armed conflicts The International Court of Justice and Some Contemporary Problems T.O. Elias, 2024-03-11 This series aims to provide authoritative guidance on all aspects of the law of international organizations This area of law has over the years developed into a separate field of study within the discipline of public international law While it covers the law of individual organizations such as the United Nations the World Trade Organization the International Criminal Court and the European Union it also includes thematic institutional law topics such as membership decision making legal personality and responsibility of international organizations In these and other areas international organizations face similar questions and share a number of common characteristics The series aims to include works written by practitioners as well as academics Exploring African approaches to international law: Essays in honour of Kéba Mbaye Frans Viljoen, Humphrey Sipalla , Foluso Adegale, 2022-10-04 It is unfortunate that the idea that Africa contributes to international law and has always done so remains in 2022 largely a side note an auxiliary approach rather than something widely accepted and deeply entrenched It is cause for pause that this is also true in Africa itself Exploring African approaches to international law Essays in honour of K ba Mbaye is a volume of essays that aims to contribute to a larger effort of imagining what possible approaches to international law Africa has adopted in the decades since the 1960s It also recognises the legacy of the great Senegalese jurist K ba Mbaye Edited by Frans Viljoen Humphrey Sipalla and Foluso Adegalu the volume is divided into five broad thematic parts and comprises eleven chapters It covers the following themes K ba Mbaye in African approaches to international law international legal theory international human rights law international environmental and criminal law and teaching of international law This publication finds its origins in the 2017 Roundtable on African approaches to international law held at the Centre for Human Rights University of Pretoria The explorations at the Roundtable on the concept of an African approach to international law were taken further at the K ba Mbaye Conference on African approaches to international law held at the Senate Hall University of Pretoria in December 2018 This conference brought together around 80 students academics and members of civil society to address the many questions left unanswered by the death of Judge Mbaye arguably Africa s greatest international law jurist of his generation It provided a forum to continue discussions on African approaches to international human rights law building on but rethinking and vernacularising the Third World Approaches to International Law TWAIL approach The contributions to this publication flow from papers presented at the conference However the reflections in the book extend beyond K ba Mbaye as central figure The result is a broad treatment of various aspects of African approaches to international law by thirteen authors and co authors covering a wide range of generational geographic and thematic backgrounds and perspectives

The State Immunity Controversy in International Law Ernest K. Bankas, 2005-06-30 The author shows through a careful analysis of the law that restrictive immunity does not have vox populi in developing countries and that it lacks usus He also argues that forum law i e the lex fori is a creature of sovereignty and between equals before the law only what is understood and acknowledged as law among states must be applied in as much as the international legal system is horizontal Elias: new horizons in int.law Taslim Olawale Elias, 1992-10-28 The Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel Totten, 2008-03-31 This volume is comprised of over 2 300 annotations on a wide array of issues and topics germane to the subject of preventing the atrocities of genocide and managing these conflicts when they do arise Samuel Totten brings together in one comprehensive collection the research and findings in various fields such as political science sociology history and psychology to enable specialists in genocide studies peace studies and conflict resolution to benefit from the insights of a diverse range of scholars and foster an understanding of how the various components of genocide studies connect Among the topics included are key conventions international treaties and covenants genocide early warning signals and forecasting risk data bases sanctions peacekeeping missions conflict resolution the International Criminal Court realpolitik vis vis the issue of genocide prevention and intervention key non governmental agencies key governmental and UN bodies working on these important issues In addition to the annotations Totten frames the bibliography with a major essay that introduces the reader to the subject of prevention and intervention of genocide raising a host of critical issues regarding the strengths weaknesses and limitations of various approaches germane to issues of managing these conflicts
