The Hardened Heart and Tragic Finitude Dan O. Via, 2012-11-05 This book has two main theses First for the biblical Christian doctrine of sin the root of the human problem is hardness of heart the corruption of the core self of the seat of understanding and will On the other hand for an important strand of Greek tragedy the root of human harm doing is the nonculpable blindness and anxiety of finitude that despite the initial nonculpability lead to evil and suffering The Hardened Heart shows that these two different interpretations of human existence are amenable to a degree of synthesis that leads to this conclusion hardness of heart and our ordinary finitude together collude to cause sin in its fullness The second thesis of this volume is that exegetical studies disclose a deconstructive strand in certain biblical texts that represents the finite world that God created as a source of distress and harm doing in something like the tragic sense This subdominant deconstructive position challenges the dominant biblical vision in which the creation came forth from God's creative word as good without qualification

Living the Lord's Prayer Albert Haase OFM, 2010-02-04 In this book Father Albert Haase follows the lines of the Lord's Prayer showing how the ideas have been understood by great people of faith including Francis of Assisi Martin Luther Th r se of Lisieux and others and revealing how God can use this ancient prayer to transform your very soul and teach you to walk in the way of a true disciple of Christ
