The Gold Rush Matthew Solomon, 2015-05-15 Matthew Solomon s study of Chaplin s The Gold Rush 1925 provides an in depth discussion of the film s production and reception history placing it in the context of the turn of the century Alaska Klondike gold rush and analyses the film s narrative and formal features particularly its references to music hall performance styles and tropes American Book Publishing Record R.R. Bowker Company, 1978 Comparative Health Law and Policy Irehobhude O. Iyioha, Remigius N. Nwabueze, 2016-05-23 Health law and policy in Nigeria is an evolving and complex field of law spanning a broad legal landscape and drawn from various sources In addressing and interacting with these sources the volume advances research on health care law and policy in Nigeria and spells the beginning of what may now be formally termed the Nigerian health law and policy legal field The collection provides a comparative analysis of relevant health policies and laws such as reproductive and sexual health policy organ donation and transplantation abortion and assisted conception with those in the United Kingdom United States Canada and South Africa It critically examines the duties and rights of physicians patients health institutions and organizations and government parastatals against the backdrop of increased awareness of rights among patient populations The subjects which are discussed from a legal ethical and policy reform perspective critique current legislation and policies and make suggestions for reform The volume presents a cohesive comparative and comprehensive analysis of the state of health law and policy in Nigeria with those in the US Canada South Africa and the UK As such it provides a valuable comparison between Western and Non Western countries The Discursive Construction of Intercultural Understanding in China Wang Xi, 2015-11-11 This book represents an ethnographic study of an International Baccalaureate Diploma Program in a school in mainland China serving Chinese students and staffed by teachers from a variety of origins It offers in depth descriptions of the way in which students teachers and managers interact and communicate with one another in a variety of school activities Through the communication process cultural experiences and understandings are negotiated constantly among school participants The ethnographic study also has a critical intention Going beyond description the author discusses the extent to which networks of social relationships in the case are imbued by asymmetries in power and how this leads to people s inability unwillingness and unawareness to interact with those from different cultural backgrounds As research findings reveal where the construction of meaning is less equally available to each participant prejudice and exclusiveness are more likely to be assumed impeding individuals intercultural learning The key is to empower those less privileged giving them legitimacy to come to voice in an institutional context on the one hand and protecting their reflections on hegemonic discourse meticulously on the other hand Since the research explores the complexities and subtleties of the communication process that are bound to particular contexts like most ethnographic studies it aims at adding a body of experience and humanistic understanding of cultures rather than testing theories. Although the IB Program being studied can hardly be representative of the overall development of international education in China, the detailed description of contextual issues of the case and the research procedures could facilitate the readers to vicariously experience these events, thus they can make their own decisions about the transferability of the research to their own unique situations.
