Not In Front Of The Servants Domestic Service In England 1850 1939:

Not in Front of the Servants Frank Victor Dawes, 1975 Irish Domestic Servants in Transatlantic Culture, c. 1870-1945 Catherine Healy, 2025-10-11 This book provides the first major transatlantic history of Irish serving women drawing on four years of archival research in Dublin Belfast New York Boston London and Liverpool Domestic service was the largest source of employment for generations of women who left Ireland in the decades after the Great Famine The perceived difficulty of managing Irish servants became a prominent feature of cultural discourse in the United States and England where countless cartoons editorials and literary works caricatured the figure of Bridget Irish maids and cooks were a canvas on which to project fears not only about Irish politics and immigration but also changing class and gender roles Existing scholarship on the Irish experience of domestic service has typically focused on socio economic conditions but such approaches tend not to capture the complex ways in which Irish female immigrants were encountered both in private households and in wider society Irish servants were framed through discourses that could involve nostalgia and guilt as well as amusement and disgust more complex scripts in general than those used to describe Irish immigrant men The period covered in the book allows for a diverse range of cultural sources including romance novels and Hollywood films depicting working Irish women to be examined moving beyond the Victorian era caricatures typically emphasised in earlier work on the Irish in domestic service Not in Front of the Servants Frank Victor Dawes, 1974 Life Below Stairs: The Real Lives of Servants, 1939 to the Present Pamela Horn, 2014-03-15 The real lives of servants in the second half of the twentieth century

Not in Front of the Servants Frank Victor Dawes, 1973 Victorian Servants, Class, and the Politics of Literacy Jean Fernandez, 2009-09-10 Utilizing an array of cultural texts fiction servant autobiography diaries and pamphlets this study examines the debate on mass literacy as it developed around the figure of the Victorian servant as well as its significance for understanding the nexus between class and narrative power in nineteenth century literature In the Service of Empire Fae Dussart, 2022-01-27 Despite recent research the 19th century history of domestic service in empire and its wider implications is underexplored This book sheds new light on servants and their masters in the British Empire and in doing so offers new discourses on the colonial home imperial society identities and colonial culture Using a wide range of source material from private papers to newspaper articles official papers and court records Dussart explores the strategic nature of the relationship the connection between imperialism domesticity and a master servant paradigm that was deployed in different ways by varied actors often neglected in the historical record Positioned outside the family but inside the private place of the home the domestic servant was often the foil against which 19th century contemporaries worked out class race and gender identities across metropole and colony creating those places in the process The role of domestic servants in empire thus lay not only in the labour they undertook but also in the way the servant master relationship constituted ground that helped other power relations to be imagined and contested Dussart explores the domestic service relationship in 19th century Britain and India considering how ideas about servants and their masters and or mistresses spanned imperial space and shaped peoples and places within it

A Garland For Gissing, 2021-11-01 The crown upon the continuing vitality and popularity of Gissing studies in the final decade of the twentieth century was the publication of The Collected Letters of George Gissing 1990 97 The editors of that mammoth undertaking Paul Mattheisen Arthur Young and Pierre Coustillas had long been an inspiration to the younger generation of Gissing scholars and their presence at the International George Gissing Conference at Amsterdam in September 1999 explained the success of the encounter between Gissing s older and younger critics Ever since the reappraisal of Gissing s works began to get under way in the early 1960s through the publication of many new editions of the works and ground breaking critical studies by Arthur Young Jacob Korg and Pierre Coustillas it has become impossible to ignore the high status he now enjoys by rights which resembles the position granted to him long ago by his contemporaries as one of the leading English novelists of the late nineteenth century This collection of essays is remarkable for its emphasis on women s issues addressed in Gissing s novels ranging from the inadequate education of women to the struggle for greater female independence within and without marriage Several contributors seek to define the precise nature and quality of Gissing s achievement and his place in the canon and in the process they open up fascinating new opportunities for future research
