

War And Peace

An email surfaced from a military post
Request from a high commander
'Urgently needed for the children
Of desolate, war torn areas
Pencils, erasers, notebooks, backpacks'
First Their fathers, mothers
Uncle and brothers are killed
Then orphan hearts are being won
With colored pencils and chewing gum

Supplies pouring in from gentle souls
For there is no choice
But to color the face of evil
And rejoice!

Postnational Memory, Peace and War Nigel Young,2019-11-26 This book examines the phenomenon of modern memory as a reaction to total war an aspiration to truth seeking provoked by the independent forces of modern war and collective violence which is transnational or postnational in character Using examples from prose and poetry film and theatre painting and photography and music and the popular arts the author traces a narrative path through the events of the twentieth century defining the tradition of modern memory in terms of its essentially anti militaristic anti war character as expressed in the manner in which it represents recalled violence and atrocity Through a series of thematic discussions of two world wars the Shoah urbicide and nuclear weapons Postnational Memory explores the formation of transnational memory drawing on examples from industrialized societies with a focus on memory of real events and their reproduction in literature and the arts often including personal recollections that link the self to the represented past As such by asking how the concept of modern memory is constructed through the victims of war and genocide the book constitutes an alternative to national memories and hegemonic militarist or ethnocentric histories Surveying the emergence of new transnational forms of remembering the past it will appeal to students and scholars of

Viking Poems on War and Peace Russell Gilbert Poole,1991-01-01 The Old Norse and Icelandic poets have left us vivid accounts of conflict and peace making in the Viking Age Russell G Poole s editorial and critical analysis reveals much about the texts themselves the events that they describe and the culture from which they come Poole attempts to put right many misunderstandings about the integrity of the texts and their narrative techniques From a historical perspective he weighs the poems authenticity as contemporary documents which provide evidence bearing upon the reconstruction of Viking Age battles peace negotiations and other events He traces the social roles played by violence in medieval Scandinavian society and explores the many functions of the poet within that society Arguing that these texts exhibit a mind style so vastly different from our own present individualism Poole suggests that the mind set of the medieval Scandinavian could be termed non individualist The poems discussed are the Darradarlj d where the speakers are Valkyries Lidsmannaflokkur a rank and file warrior s description of Canute the Great s siege of London in 1016 Torf Einarr s Revenge Egil s Duel with Ljotr five verses from the classic Egils saga Skallagrimssonar A Battle on the Heath marking the culmination of a famous feud described in a very early Icelandic saga the Heidarviga saga and two extracts from the poem Sexstefia one describing Haraldr of Norway s great fleet and victory over Sveinn of Denmark and the other the peace settlement between these two kinds The texts are presented in association with translations and commentaries as a resource not merely for medieval Scandinavian studies but also for the increasingly interwoven specialisms of literary theory and anthropology      Literature of the 1940s: War, Postwar and 'Peace' Gill Plain,2013-09-10 A groundbreaking re reading of the literary response to a decade of trauma and transformation This study undoes the customary division of the 1940s into the Second World War and after Instead it focuses on the thematic preoccupations that emerged from writers immersion in and resistance to the conflict Through seven chapters Documenting Desiring Killing Escaping Grieving Adjusting and Atomising the book sets middlebrow and popular writers alongside residual modernists and new voices to reconstruct the literary landscape of the period Detailed case studies of fiction drama and poetry provide fresh critical perspectives on writers as diverse as Margery Allingham Alexander Baron Elizabeth Bowen Keith Douglas Henry Green Graham Greene Georgette Heyer Alun Lewis Nancy Mitford George Orwell Mervyn Peake J B Priestley Terence Rattigan Mary Renault Stevie Smith Dylan Thomas and Evelyn Waugh Key Features Detailed and theoretically informed case studies of canonical writers such as Bowen Orwell Greene and Waugh Case studies and critical re evaluations of popular genre writers and forgotten writers      The Collected Poems of Henry
