Professor Lundy's Guide to Rock Music Connoisseurship Duane Emerson Lundy,2023-10-20 This empirical and theoretical book should be of interest to anyone who dares to consider the contentious topic of measuring and justifying aesthetic value in music as well as the issue of how experts compare to nonexperts in terms of aesthetic fluency aesthetic sensitivity and aesthetic judgment in appraising music The book should be both practical and personal for anyone who has a music collection and loves to see it grow continuously but wisely What makes someone an expert The key issue tackled here is how one develops into such a connoisseur of music Overall the book should spark much healthy debate about rock music quality and aesthetics in general both among scholars of aesthetics and the musically passionate general public. Many of the ideas for connoisseur development for music could also be applied to appraisal in other areas of aesthetics beyond music such as films, visual art or literature. Words of Praise Professor Lundy's Guide to Rock Music Connoisseurship is simply fantastic. It is written with elegance, eloquence and passion. His vast knowledge of rock n roll will enlighten every reader and his enthusiasm for this topic is infectious. The book is designed to be comprehensible to any reader but also carefully cited to please the most demanding scholar. He successfully aims to teach the reader how to become expert in evaluating the aesthetic quality of music using a precision system to guide us into deeper and defensible judgements on what pieces of music are the best and which are the worst. This is a beautiful book that enriches the heart and brightens the mind.

Rhett Diessner, Professor Emeritus of Psychology, Lewis Clark State College, author of Understanding the Beauty Appreciation Trait: Empirical Research on Seeking Beauty in All Things. Aesthetic judgments of music are important but poorly understood. To the everyday listener they may seem arbitrary or otherwise inexplicable. In this book Professor Lundy offers an unashamedly positive view on aesthetic judgments, emphasizing their rational nature and showing how various non-aesthetic biases that do exist can be minimized. The result is a joyful celebration of music science and connoisseurship which is sure to spark further interest and debate on this fascinating topic.

Professor Patrik N Juslin, Music Psychology Group, Uppsala University, Sweden.

Walking to Camelot John A. Cherrington, 2016-03-21. John Cherrington and his seventy-four year old walking companion set out one fine morning in May to traverse the only English footpath that cuts south through the rural heart of the country, a formidable path called the Macmillan Way. Cherrington's walking partner is Karl Yzerman, an irascible bull of the woods, a full twenty years his senior and the perfect foil to the wry and self-deprecating author. Their journey begins at Boston on the Wash and takes them through areas of outstanding beauty such as the Cotswolds, Somerset and Dorset all the way to Chesil Beach. Their ultimate destination is Cadbury Castle, a hillfort that many archeologists believe to be the likely location of King Arthur's legendary centre of operations in the late 5th century when he or some other prominent British warrior chieftain made his last stand against the Saxons. Along the way the unlikely duo experiences many adventures including a serious crime scene, a bull attack, several ghosts, a brothel and the English themselves. On virtually every page of the book the historical merges with the magic of the footpath with Cherrington making astute often humorous observations on the social cultural and culinary mores of the English all from a very North American perspective Seasonal Storytime Crafts Kathryn Totten,2002 This seasonal offering provides craft projects that highlight holidays special days and changes in the weather Intervention Strategies to Follow Informal Reading Inventory Assessment JoAnne Schudt Caldwell,Lauren Leslie,2005 Includes workable activities for intervention sessions based on specific assessment results Written by JoAnne Caldwell and Lauren Leslie authors of the Qualitative Reading Inventory Will help to specifically connect performance on a informal reading inventory to related and practical intervention strategies Reading specialists K 12 literacy pre service and in service teachers The Publishers Weekly ,1997 School Library Journal ,1997 Children's Book Review Service Children's Book Review Service,1995
