How Effective Sermons End Ben Awbrey, 2022-07-21. Extremely rare is the preacher whose preaching could not be improved substantially by readdressing his sermon conclusions. Moreover, a sermon conclusion marks the typical preacher's greatest need for improvement in his preaching. This most significant element of a sermon has been championed for its importance in a sermon, and yet the conclusion is trivialized in if not omitted from the preaching of sermons. Whether textual, topical, or expository, in preaching methodology the typical preacher has a greater understanding and better implementation of everything else related to preaching in contrast to what is understood and done in concluding sermons. Much is not done, and much more is not understood, to conclude sermons with clarity, strength, and persuasiveness. How Effective Sermons End provides a comprehensive approach and thorough examination of the sorely needed and long overlooked instruction regarding that most vital of all elements of a sermon: the sermon conclusion. This book fills the existing void in homiletical pedagogy about concluding sermons, a void that prevents preachers from reaching their full potential of effectiveness in the ministry of preaching the Word of God. The pathway of better preaching is knowledge and skill to effectively conclude sermons, and this book floods that pathway with light.

The Rhetoric of the Pulpit, Second Edition Jon Meyer Ericson, 2020-03-26. The Rhetoric of the Pulpit treats the sermon as the single most important factor in evangelism for a parish and also the most important factor in the spiritual growth of both the congregation and the pastor. With emphasis on the Word as the foundation, the author adds music and liturgy to the sermon's structure to build a unified worship experience. Recognizing that the Word is truth, but that the truth needs to be made to seem true, the book offers sound practical advice on sermon preparation based on both classical and contemporary communication theory. Sermon preparation is viewed as a process that begins with downloading the Word, followed by productive meditation. The process then moves through the rhetorical steps from a search for content to the sermon's delivery. Throughout the book, the rhetorical principles are treated as a subordinate element to the Word, a means of giving effectiveness to the truth. The Rhetoric of the Pulpit aims to reflect the spirit of Aristotle, St. Augustine, St. Paul, and Kenneth Burke.

La predicación John F. MacArthur, 2009-09-28. Si está tratando de condensar la predicación bíblica en un volumen, aquí lo tiene John MacArthur y otros distinguidos maestros de predicadores.

responden al mandato apostólico en este tratado completo de la predicación expositiva La reconocida pasión que tiene el doctor MacArthur por las Escrituras se combinan con la visión y destreza de otros miembros de la facultad de The Masters Seminary para producir una declaración definitiva de cómo dar a conocer el significado de la Palabra de Dios con eficacia a la congregación de hoy en día Otros colaboradores incluyen a James F Stitzinger James E Rosscup Robert L Thomas George J Zemek Donald G McDougall Richard L Mayhue Irvin A Busenitz y David C Deuel      The Hum Evans E. Crawford, 1995

Firmly rooted in the black experience this approach to homiletics helps readers understand preaching as an oral event The call response tension in black preaching is what drives the musicality of speech in black churches Crawford refers to this musicality as hum thoughts and leads the reader to a better understanding of this type of preaching and its effects on the congregation
