The Science Fiction of Mark Clifton Mark Clifton,1980 This collection of the best short stories of Mark Clifton makes these fine tales readily available for the first time in two decades Winner with Frank Riley of the 1955 Hugo Award for They d Rather Be Right Clifton has for a variety of reasons unrelated to the quality of his writing all but disappeared from the awareness of today s science fiction audience Never a prolific writer he had published only about twenty five short stories before his death in 1963 But with those stories and his three novels he irrevocably altered the course of contemporary science fiction Almost single handedly he introduced the full range of psychological insights to the commonly occurring themes of the genre alien invasion expanding technology revolution against political theocracy and space exploration and colonization to ever more truthfully portray how humanity would react to a future that could be either mindless or intellectually stunning With his first published story What Have I Done Clifton initiated the theme of a starkly realistic world in which at its best humanity is inalterably vile a theme that became an inextricable part of all his subsequent works In his later works Clifton occasionally clothed his bitter indictment in the garb of comedy The stories collected here include What Have I Done Star Bright Crazy Joey What Thin Partitions Sense from Thought Divide How Allied Remembrance and Reflection Hide Hide Witch Clerical Error What Now Little Man and Hang Head Vandal

My book is about my walk with the Lord and how he has answered prayer so powerfully I touch a little in the beginning of how God brought my family through the depression and World War II which occurred before I was born It was through my parents Christian walk that taught me how to love and live for Jesus I was inspired to write this book to encourage others to call upon him Those that do hunger and thirst after him shall be filled Through this wonderful story of a childlike faith you will see how a prayer that I had at five years old was answered when I was twelve Since then the Lord has answered many other prayers in my life some of which I share in this book I know he will do the same for you I do give God all the glory To God be the glory Your Child and Reading ,1981 World War Ii Letters Home Audrey Fahlberg,2015-06-27 During World War II as letters arrived from my husband a frontline combat medic in Italy with the Tenth Mountain Division I was given assurance he was alive I had to believe though letters often arrived two months after they were written That letter home was the only communication available in 1944 and 1945 from the Italian front and all letters and cards were censored Newspapers radios and newsreels at the movies told the world of the mountain peaks captured rivers crossed heroic details lives lost That letter home held our hearts together during the war Letters were often written on the surface of his helmet on a rock or a board and on any writing paper that was available The letters home have been lovingly transcribed for easier reading because I wish to share them
