Normal Instructor and Teachers World ,1920      Microtimes ,1988-10      Experiencing Narrative Worlds

Richard J. Gerrig,1993-01-01 What does it mean to be transported by a narrative to create a world inside one s head How do experiences of narrative worlds alter our experience of the real world In this book Richard Gerrig integrates insights from cognitive psychology and from research in linguistics philosophy and literary criticism to provide a cohesive account of what have most often been treated as isolated aspects of narrative experience Drawing on examples from Tolstoi to Toni Morrison Gerrig offers new analyses of some classic problems in the study of narrative He discusses the ways in which we are cognitively equipped to tackle fictional and nonfictional narratives how thought and emotion interact when we experience narrative how narrative information influences judgments in the real world and the reasons we can feel the same excitement and suspense when we reread a book as when we read it for the first time Gerrig also explores the ways we enhance the experience of narratives through finding solutions to textual dilemmas enjoying irony at the expense of the characters in narrative and applying a wide range of interpretive techniques to discover meanings concealed by and from authors
