Reader For Race And Ethnicity:

The Ethnicity Reader Maria Montserrat Guibernau i Berdún, Montserrat Guibernau, John Rex, 2010-01-11 Drawing on a wide range of examples the selections included examine theories of nationalism and consider issues of ethnic integration and conflict in the USA China Britain Germany Quebec Scotland Galicia Catalonia Kurdistan Iran Iraq and Somaliland among other countries and regions The reader however does not confine itself to the study of nationalism Many of the selections deal with the role of ethnicity in groups which are not nationalist at all but for which ethnicity is an important factor in the process of migration The concept of ethnicity is therefore discussed both in relation to group rights in existing nation states and in relation to transnational communities in a globalized world Race, Ethnicity, and Health Thomas A.

LaVeist, Lydia A. Isaac, 2012-10-16 Race Ethnicity and Health Second Edition is a critical selection of hallmark articles that address health disparities in America It effectively documents the need for equal treatment and equal health status for minorities Intended as a resource for faculty and students in public health as well as the social sciences it will be also be valuable to public health administrators and frontline staff who serve diverse racial and ethnic populations The book brings together the best peer reviewed research literature from the leading scholars and faculty in this growing field providing a historical and political context for the study of health race and ethnicity with key findings on disparities in access use and quality This volume also examines the role of health care providers in health disparities and discusses the issue of matching patients and doctors by race New chapters cover reflections on demographic changes in the US based on the current census metrics and nomenclature for disparities theories of genetic basis for disparities the built environment residential segregation environmental health occupational health health disparities in integrated communities Latino health Asian populations stress and health physician patient relationships hospital treatment of minorities the slavery hypertension hypothesis geographic disparities and intervention design Ethnicity And Crime: A Reader Spalek, Basia, 2008-07-01

Basia Spalek has compiled an excellent reader about a much researched and highly sensitive subject Crucially she contextualises ethnicity and crime within broadly defined social and intellectual contexts avoiding the limitation of all too frequently repeated research based solely on statistical measures and policy evaluations Simon Holdaway Professor of Criminology and Sociology Sheffield University Issues in relation to race and ethnicity have generated substantial and ever growing interest from and within a multitude of academic research and policy contexts This book brings together important material in race and ethnic studies and provides different ways of thinking about race and ethnicity in relation to crime and the criminal justice system Ethnicity and Crime A Reader consists of a collection of works that capture the main themes that arise from within this vast area of work It is divided into five sections Race and crime racial discrimination and criminal justice The racialisation of crime Social political and cultural contexts Race ethnicity and victimisation Self and discipline reflexivity Ethnic identities and crime Ethnic identities institutional reflexivity and crime Each section contains recurring and overlapping themes and includes many different ways of thinking about race and ethnicity in relation to crime. It spans theoretical approaches that might be labelled as positivist, critical race analyses, left realist approaches, feminist as well as post modern perspectives. This is the first title in the new series Readings in Criminology and Criminal Justice and follows the series format of thematic sections together with an editor's introduction to the complete volume and an introduction to each section.

The RoutledgeFalmer Reader in Multicultural Education David Gillborn, Gloria Ladson-Billings, 2004. Bringing together scholarship from both sides of the Atlantic, this book focuses on the questions that shape the field of multicultural education, offering the reader an opportunity to achieve a real grasp of the subject.

The Language, Ethnicity and Race Reader Roxy Harris, Ben Rampton, 2003. This Reader collects in one volume the key readings on language, ethnicity and race. Using linguistic and cultural analysis, it explores changing ideas of race and the ways in which these ideas shape human communication.

Language, Race and Ethnicity Roxy Harris, Ben Rampton, 2003.

'Mixed Race' Studies Jayne O. Ifekwunigwe, 2015-03-24. Mixed race studies is one of the fastest growing as well as one of the most important and controversial areas in the field of race and ethnic relations. Bringing together pioneering and controversial scholarship from both the social and the biological sciences as well as the humanities, this reader charts the evolution of debates on race and mixed race from the nineteenth to the twenty first century. The book is divided into three main sections: tracing the origins of miscegenation, moral degeneracy and genetics; mapping contemporary and foundational discourses on mixed race identities, politics and celebration; debating definitions of multiraciality, census categories and critiques. This collection adds a new dimension to the growing body of literature on the topic and provides a comprehensive history of the origins and directions of mixed race research as an intellectual movement. For students of anthropology, race and ethnicity, it is an invaluable resource for examining the complexities and paradoxes of racial thinking across space, time and disciplines.

Reader for Race and Ethnicity, 2003.

The Culture and Psychology Reader Nancy Rule, Goldberger, Jody Veroff, 1995-08. A collection of readings relevant to the development of an intercultural psychology which takes into account the different circumstances, needs, values, constructions of reality and worldviews and belief systems that significantly shape the experience and behavior of cultural groups. The 34 papers and introductory essay are arranged in four parts: the politics of difference; development, adaptation and the acquisition of culture; self and other in cultural context; and diagnostic assessment, treatment and cultural bias.
