Nelson-Royes, 2012-10-18 Transforming Early Learners into Superb Readers Promoting Literacy at School at Home and within the Community aids elementary educators, reading specialists, school administrators, private and public educators, parents and caregivers who want to help early learners become proficient readers. The early years are the most important for children because they are the formative years so it is vital for children to build a solid reading foundation when they are most receptive. Andrea Nelson Royes contends that if all these individual players collectively help to develop a child's reading readiness, all children may thrive from a high quality education and a love of literacy. Electromechanical Control

Reading and Writing the Electronic Book Catherine Marshall,2022-06-01 Developments over the last twenty years have fueled considerable speculation about the future of the book and of reading itself This book begins with a gloss over the history of electronic books including the social and technical forces that have shaped their development The focus then shifts to reading and how we interact with what we read basic issues such as legibility annotation and navigation are examined as aspects of reading that ebooks inherit from their print legacy Because reading is fundamentally communicative I also take a closer look at the sociality of reading how we read in a group and how we share what we read Studies of reading and ebook use are integrated throughout the book but Chapter 5 goes meta to explore how a researcher might go about designing his or her own reading related studies No book about ebooks is complete without an explicit discussion of content preparation i e how the electronic book is written Hence Chapter 6 delves into the underlying representation of ebooks and efforts to create and apply markup standards to them This chapter also examines how print genres have made the journey to digital and how some emerging digital genres might be realized as ebooks Finally Chapter 7 discusses some beyond the book functionality how can ebook platforms be transformed into portable personal libraries In the end my hope is that by the time the reader reaches the end of this book he or she will feel equipped to perform the next set of studies write the next set of articles invent new ebook functionality or simply engage in a heated argument with the stranger in seat 17C about the future of reading Table of Contents Preface Figure Credits Introduction Reading Interaction Reading as a Social Activity Studying Reading Beyond the Book References Author Biography

Reference and Information Services Melissa A. Wong,Laura Saunders,2020-05-04 This revised and updated sixth edition of Reference and Information Services continues the book's rich tradition covering all phases of reference and information services with less emphasis on print and more emphasis on strategies and scenarios. Reference and Information Services is the go-to textbook for MSLIS and i School courses on reference services and related topics. It is also a helpful handbook for practitioners. Authors include LIS faculty and professionals who have relevant degrees in their areas and who have published extensively on their topics. The first half of the book provides an overview of reference services and techniques for service provision including the reference interview, ethics instruction, reader's advisory, and services to diverse populations including children. This part of the book establishes a foundation of knowledge on reference service and frames each topic with ethical and social justice perspectives. The second part of the book offers an overview of the information life cycle and dissemination of information followed by an in-depth examination of information sources by type including dictionaries, encyclopedias, indexes, and abstracts as well as by broad subject areas including government statistics and data, health, and legal information. This second section introduces the tools and resources that reference professionals use to provide the services described in the first half of the text.
