Helping Your Children with Reading and Writing at Home Mary A. Colbert, William P. Colbert, 2009-01-31 Helping Your Children with Reading and Writing at Home By Mary Ann Colbert Dr William P Colbert There really is no place like home when it comes to developing competent readers and writers And with the aid of our new world changing guide the process and the goal of developing lifelong readers and writers will be greatly facilitated Many years ago we set about finding out what type of reading and writing help parents and other adults were giving children and how it was working We asked everyone and anyone who would talk with us and we came up with some rather startling information to share in our guide Now talking with parents grandparents adults and children about the reading and writing activities they have experienced at home is second nature to us Through the years we have discovered that a great many things are happening in American homes relative to helping children in these areas and even greater things are possible The purpose of our book We like to call it a guide is to awaken parents grandparents and other adults who work with children to the great possibilities that are open to them that will revolutionize learning now and for future generations The ideas suggestions and strategies in our guide step off from the interests of the learners which are the best indicators of what the children are ready and able to learn next as opposed to curriculums and textbooks which often have an iron grip on what is available for young students to learn We show our readers how to take advantage of the great knowledge they have about their children and how to use it to guide their children's learning and more especially to identify what is the next appropriate step for their children to take in their learning All this is done in the home setting with family members participating and sharing the fruits of their learning labors Besides giant leaps in learning families can expect outstanding growth in family interpersonal relationships The family is actually drawn closer together by sharing their diverse interests At the onset of the guide adults are asked to compare their thinking on reading and writing learning with some of the experts in the field via a true false checklist This technique totally involves parents with the book from the start and parents are often surprised to see how their thinking coincides with experts in the field The next section contains three case studies that illustrate in detail exactly what some very effective adults did to further the reading and writing skills of the children with whom they worked The third sections contain some precise strategies that parents and other adults can begin using today with their children The next sections identifies what children see as effective reading and writing strategies that are used by parents and their teachers Section five is a summary of some ideas of some great teachers of reading and writing The ideas here are undergirded by some sound learning principles which every adult who works with children will want to know about The final section ends much like the guide begins with a checklist of some true false items that will help guide parents and other adults to increasing success in helping their children with reading and writing at home Success in Reading and Writing Jean F. Bernholz, Patricia Horne Sumner, 1992 Educational resource for teachers parents and kids MAX

Teaching with Reading and Writing Mark A. Forget, 2007-05-23 Research proven activities that engage students in active processing of new information leading to deeper understanding long term retention of subject matter and acquisition of life long learning skills Resources in Education , 2000-04 Reading and Writing Byeway Books, 2004-01-01 Children love stickers but don't necessarily love homework Adding stickers to workbooks encourages children to have fun while they learn The exercises in these books will help prepare them for schoolwork Reading Literacy in the United States , 1994 Help With Homework: Age 5+ Reading & Writing Autumn Publishing, 2024-02-08 Reading, Writing, and Rising Up Linda Christensen, 2000 Give students the power of language by using the inspiring ideas in this very readable book Building on Strength Ana Celia Zentella, 2005-09-10 This book offers an exciting new perspective on language socialization in Latino families Tackling mainstream views of childhood and the role and nature of language socialization leading researchers and teacher trainers provide a historical political and cultural context for the language attitudes and socialization practices that help determine what and how Latino children speak read and write Representing a radical departure from the ways in which most educators have been taught to think about first language acquisition and second language learning this timely volume introduces the theories and methods of language socialization with memorable case studies of children and their families highlights the diversity of Latino communities offers important insights into the ways in which children learn to speak and read by negotiating overlapping and or conflicting cultural models and suggests universal practices to facilitate language socialization in multilingual communities including applications for teachers Reading-Writing Connections Mary F. Heller, 1999-04 Reading Writing Connections From Theory to Practice is an extraordinary language arts methods text that enables elementary and middle school teachers to create classroom environments where all students can become lifelong readers and writers Focusing on developmentally appropriate methods and materials this remarkably readable book empowers a new generation of teachers to integrate reading writing listening and speaking in K 8 classrooms Heller's highly accessible writing style makes this book suitable as a primary text for undergraduate and graduate courses in language arts reading writing and literacy Special features of this second edition include a vision of how to transform cutting edge theory and research into classroom practice that utilizes integrated language arts instruction a unique developmental perspective with separate chapters on teaching methods and materials for kindergarten primary 1 3 intermediate 4 6 and middle grades 7 8 instructional guidelines that offer generous detailed suggestions for applying theory to practice plus For You to Try and For Your Journal exercises that encourage critical thinking and reflection and a wealth of classroom vignettes examples of students oral and written language illustrations and figures that accentuate interesting and informative theory research and practice In addition Reading Writing Connections offers expanded content on the impact of sociocultural theory and the whole language movement on the teaching of reading and writing across the curriculum greater emphasis on cultural diversity including new multicultural children's literature booklists that complement the general children's literature bibliographies and current information on alternative assessment emerging technologies the multiage classroom reader response to literature and thematic teaching Insights from the Common European Framework Keith Morrow, 2004 Helping learners to learn portfolios self assessment and strategy instruction The CEF in course design and in teacher education Finding out what learners can do Designing syllabus and materials Teaching Struggling Students in Math Bill Hanlon, 2012-10-12 In this book the author provides examples and recommends highly effective and practical instructional and assessment strategies that classroom teachers can immediately implement and that school administrators can readily observe These high yield strategies build on accepted practices and directly address the needs of struggling students His approach assists classroom teachers in organizing their instruction by connecting preparation and instruction to student notes homework test preparation and assessments so students study more effectively This results in increased student performance He also emphasizes the importance of student teacher relationships and the implementing a success on success model His emphasis on making students more comfortable in their knowledge understanding and application of math is demonstrated repeatedly with examples of how to introduce new concepts and skills by linking them to previously learned math and outside experiences These linkages allow teachers another opportunity to review and reinforce skills or address student deficiencies Publisher's description Digital Reading and Writing in Composition Studies Mary R. Lamb, Jennifer M. Parrott, 2019-03-13 As digital reading has become more productive and active the lines between reading and writing become more blurred This book offers both an exploration of collaborative reading and pedagogical strategies for teaching reading and writing that reflect the realities of digital literacies This edited scholarly collection offers strategies for teaching reading and writing that highlight the possibilities opportunities and complexities of digital literacies Part 1 explores reading and writing that happen digitally and offers frameworks for thinking about this process Part 2 focuses on strategies for the classroom by applying reading theories design principles and rhetorical concepts to instruction Part 3 introduces various disciplinary implications for this blended approach to writing instruction What is emerging is new theories and practices of reading in both print and digital spaces theories that account for how diverse student readers encounter and engage digital texts This collection contributes to this work by offering strategies for sustaining reading and cultivating writing in this landscape of changing digital literacies The book is essential for the professional development of beginning teachers who will appreciate the historical and bibliographic overview as well as classroom strategies and for busy veteran teachers who will gain updated knowledge and a renewed commitment to teaching an array of literacy skills It will be ideal for graduate seminars in composition theory and pedagogy both undergraduate and graduate and teacher education courses and will be key reading for scholars in rhetoric and composition interested in composition history assessment communication studies and
