E. Onukaogu, 2005 The first in a two volume set of selected papers presented at the 3rd Pan African Conference on Reading for All in Kampala Uganda This volume considers literacy within the formal education system in Africa bringing international perspectives to the topic It documents programs that are working to improve practices and the teaching of reading in schools and literacy in more than one language presenting case studies from Tanzania Uganda Zambia and Nigeria It addresses the subject of developing culturally appropriate educational and literacy materials particularly in African languages The final section considers more esoteric debates about cultural barriers to reading and the development of a reading culture and the cultural differences in reading and interpretation of literary texts The Languages of Africa and the Diaspora Jo Anne Kleifgen, George C. Bond, 2009 This book takes a fresh look at subordinated vernacular languages in the context of African Caribbean and US educational landscapes highlighting the social cost of linguistic exceptionalism for speakers of these languages Chapters describe contravening movements toward various forms of linguistic diversity and offer a comprehensive approach to language awareness in educative settings Language, Literature and Style in Africa Taiwo Abioye, Arua E.
