Childs-Johnson,John S Major,2023-05-30 Metamorphic Imagery in Ancient Chinese Art and Religion demonstrates that the concept of metamorphism was central to ancient Chinese religious belief and practices from at least the late Neolithic period through the Warring States Period of the Zhou dynasty Central to the authors argument is the ubiquitous motif in early Chinese figurative art the metamorphic power mask While the motif underwent stylistic variation over time its formal properties remained stable underscoring the image s ongoing religious centrality It symbolized the metamorphosis through the phenomenon of death of royal personages from living humans to deceased ancestors who required worship and sacrificial offerings Treated with deference and respect the royal ancestors lent support to their living descendants ratifying and upholding their rule neglected they became dangerous even malevolent Employing a multidisciplinary approach that integrates archaeologically recovered objects with literary evidence from oracle bone and bronze inscriptions to canonical texts all situated in the appropriate historical context the study presents detailed analyses of form and style and of change

Sentient Archaeologies Courtney Nimura,Rebecca O’Sullivan,Richard Bradley,2023-07-15 Archaeology in the past century has seen a major shift from theoretical frameworks that treat the remains of past societies as static snapshots of particular moments in time to interpretations that prioritize change and variability Though established analytical concepts such as typology remain key parts of the archaeologist s investigative toolkit data gathering strategies and interpretative frameworks have become infused progressively with the concept that archaeology is living in the sense of both the objects of study and the discipline as a whole The significance for the field is that researchers across the world are integrating ideas informed by relational epistemologies and mutually constructive ontologies into their work from the initial stage of project design all the way down to post excavation interpretation This volume showcases examples of such work highlighting the utility of these ideas to exploring material both old and new The illuminating research and novel explanations presented contribute to resolving long standing problems in regional archaeologies across Africa Asia Australia Europe and Oceania In this way this volume reinvigorates approaches taken towards older material but also acts as a springboard for future innovative discussions of theory in archaeology and related disciplines Handbook to Ruling the World J.G.
