Security Defence Sw England:

Castles and Landscapes O. H. Creighton, 2005 This paperback edition of a book first published in hardback in 2002 is a fascinating and provocative study which looks at castles in a new light using the theories and methods of landscape studies

England's military heartland Vron Ware, Antonia Lucia Dawes, Mitra Pariyar, Alice Cree, 2025-01-28 What is it like to live next door to a British Army base England's military heartland provides an eye opening account of the sprawling military presence on Salisbury Plain drawing on a wide range of voices from both sides of the divide Targeted for expansion under government plans to reorganise the UK's global defence estate the Salisbury super garrison offers a unique opportunity to explore the impact of the military footprint in a particular place But this is no ordinary environment as well as being the world famous site of Stonehenge the grasslands of Salisbury Plain are home to rare plants and wildlife How does the army take responsibility for conserving this unique landscape as it trains young men and women to use lethal weapons Are its claims that its presence is a positive for the environment anything more than propaganda This book investigates these questions against the backdrop of a historic landscape inscribed with the legacy of perpetual war A Murderous

Midsummer Mark Stoye, 2022-01-01 The fascinating story of the so called Prayer Book Rebellion of 1549 which saw the people of Devon and Cornwall rise up against the Crown The Western Rising of 1549 was the most catastrophic event to occur in Devon and Cornwall between the Black Death and the Civil War Beginning as an argument between two men and their vicar the rebellion led to a siege of Exeter savage battles with Crown forces and the deaths of 4 000 local men and women It represents the most determined attempt by ordinary English people to halt the religious reformation of the Tudor period Mark Stoye tells the story of the so called Prayer Book Rebellion in full Correcting the accepted narrative in a number of places Stoye shows that the government in London saw the rebels as a real threat He demonstrates the importance of regional identity and emphasizes that religion was at the heart of the uprising This definitive account brings to life the stories of the thousands of men and women who acted to defend their faith almost five hundred years ago Medieval Warfare

Maurice Hugh Keen, 2001 Tudor and Stuart Devon Todd Gray, Margery M. Rowe, Audrey M. Erskine, 1992 A collection of essays on the theme of Tudor and Stuart Devon Subjects studied include Katherine Courtney Countess of Devon tinworking in four Devon stannaries the legislative activities of local MPs during the reign of Elizabeth landed society and the emergence of the country house North Devon maritime enterprise English wine imports with special reference to the Devon ports fishing and the commercial world of early Stuart Dartmouth the clergy in Devon 1641 1661 Fortifications and Siegecraft

Jeremy Black, 2018-05-25 As centers for defense and bases for attack since ancient times fortifications are a crucial aspect of military history Indeed as Jeremy Black shows the history of fortifications is a global history of humanity itself Moreover their remains offer a still potent often dramatic testimony to the past notably through the strength of the sites the power of the works and the vast resources they required This compelling book explores not only the history of fortifications themselves but also the real and potential threat to them posed by siegecraft Tracing the interaction of attack and defense over time Black situates the evolution of fortifications within the wider development of governments societies and cultures Moreover his examination of the future of these installations as well as of potential methods of destroying them only reaffirms their omnipresence in human history and their continued importance Fortifications are not simply relics of the past but rather elements fundamental to military and social interaction across the world today
