Security Issues In The Postcold War World:

Security Issues in the Post-cold War World M. Jane Davis, 1996 Security Issues in the Post Cold War World focuses on the changing international security agenda and the serious political instabilities many rooted in ethnic nationalisms and long standing border disputes which have resurfaced with the end of the Cold War

NATO's Durability in a Post-Cold War World Joe Burton, 2018-02-15 Why is it that despite the end of the Cold War and the almost constant controversies surrounding the alliance's role in the world the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO is still a prominent and vital player in international security Joe Burton provides an in depth analysis of NATO's changing role in the post Cold War era and its ability to survive adapt and meet the needs of its members in an increasingly turbulent globalized security environment He offers a historically and theoretically informed account of NATO that isolates the core dynamics that have held the alliance together in troubled times In particular he examines a series of processes and events from the 1990 Gulf War to the rise of the Islamic State that help explain NATO's continuing relevance

U.S. Intervention Policy in the Post-cold War World Frances K. Scott, 1994

International Intervention in the Post-Cold War World Michael C. Davis, Wolfgang Dietrich, Bettina Scholdan, 2017-07-28 International intervention on humanitarian grounds has been a contentious issue for decades First it pits the principle of state sovereignty against claims of universal human rights Second the motivations of intervening states may be open to question when avowals of moral action are arguably the fig leaf covering an assertion of power for political advantage These questions have been salient in the context of the Balkan and African wars and U S policy in the Middle East This volume undertakes a serious systematic and broadly international review of the issues

Strategic Stability in the Post-Cold War World and the Future of Nuclear Disarmament Melvin L. Best, Jr., John Hughes-Wilson, Andrei A. Piontkowsky, 2013-04-17 This Report contains a

Consensus Report and the papers submitted to the April 6-10 1995 NATO Advanced Research Workshop on Strategic Stability In The Post Cold War World And The Future Of Nuclear Disarmament held in Washington D C United States Of America at The Airlie Conference Center The workshop was sponsored by the NATO Division Scientific and Environmental Affairs as part of its ongoing outreach programme to widen and deepen scientific contacts between NATO member countries and the Cooperation Partner countries of the former Warsaw Treaty Organization The participants recognize that the collapse of the former Soviet Union has left a conceptual vacuum in the definition of a new world order Never before have the components of world order all changed so rapidly so deeply or so globally As Henry Kissinger points out the emergence of the new world order will have answered three fundamental questions What are the basic units of the international order What are their means of interacting and What are the goals on behalf of which they interact The main question is whether the establishment and maintenance of an international system will turn out to be a conscious design or the outgrowth of a test of strength The concept of a planning framework that could shape or govern these interactions is emerging and may now be at hand Capturing this emerging framework is the thrust of this NATO sponsored Advanced Research Workshop
