Segawas Illustrated Ethnography Of Indigenous Formosan People The Tsou:

The Formosan Primary Anthropogonic Myths, Genesis, and the Creation of Man Valdis Gauss, 2025-05-26 In this book Valdis Gauss anthologizes the Formosan anthropogonic myths from all of Taiwan's Austronesian tribes. Over 250 origin texts sourced from dozens of linguistic, anthropological, historical, and mythological corpora, as well as other publications, have been collated and analysed, rendering the present literary survey far more comprehensive than any prior study on this subject. Over 100 Formosan myths, many of which were never previously available in English, have been translated here for the first time. In the absence of longstanding traditional orthographical records, the Austronesian tribes that inhabit the island of Taiwan have relied on the transmission of oral literatures for the preservation of historical events since the dawn of time. The earliest historical events that are still recited by tribal elders relate to the origins of the gods and first ancestors of mankind. This anthology continues the tradition of collecting and transcribing these myths for everyone interested in the corpus of literature from Taiwan's aboriginal peoples. Segawa Kokichi Taiwan senjumin shashinshi Hiroshi Yuasa, Kokichi Segawa, 2000

Statecraft and Spectacle in East Asia Adam Clulow, 2013-09-13 Statecraft and Spectacle in East Asia is a multidisciplinary collection of essays that explores the intertwined histories of Taiwan and Japan across the long sweep of the early modern and modern periods. Drawing on new research by scholars from Europe, North America, and Asia Pacific, it moves beyond the conventional focus on the mechanics of the Japanese colonial state to provide new perspectives on a highly significant relationship that shaped the nature of the modern East Asian political landscape. Ranging from the seventeenth century to the chaotic aftermath of empire, the papers collected here consider Tokugawa Japan's halting engagement with Taiwan as a key world historical moment that illuminates changing attitudes towards maritime expansion, the ways in which the colonial project was packaged and sold in print as well as image, and the complex legal discourses surrounding the making and unmaking of empire. Together, they show how influence flowed both ways between Taiwan and Japan and the importance of inter-Asian interactions. This book was published as a special issue of Japanese Studies. Building Knowledge, Constructing Histories, volume 2 Ine Wouters, Stephanie Voorde, Inge Bertels, Bernard Espion, Krista Jonge, Denis Zastavni, 2018-07-11 Building Knowledge Constructing Histories brings together the papers presented at the Sixth International Congress on Construction History 6ICCH, Brussels, Belgium, 9-13 July 2018.
