internationally acclaimed author Dorota Masowska comes a hilarious and devastating satire of consumer culture Set in a bizarre all too real imaginary of American pop culture Honey I Killed the Cats introduces us to two independent young women struggling to live the lives that television and glossy magazines have promised them In a collision of street slang and mass media sloganeering Masowska's electrifying prose drives a propulsive story about spiritual longing in a dispirited world Masowska's novel examines the ways we attempt to exist and find meaning in lives defined by what we buy In this warped world saturated by advertising and materialism where everything can be bought from personality and physical traits to religion and self fulfillment Joanne and Farah two very different women form a friendship both bonded in and ultimately destroyed by the manipulations of consumer culture Joanne has everything the commercials say you should want confidence a carefree life happiness to excess Farah is a self loathing envious germophobic malcontent Through a shared metaphysical dream experience that spills over into their increasingly troubled day to day lives these best friends find themselves consumed by their equal and opposite obsessions Widely regarded as Polish literary sensation Masowska's best novel yet Honey I Killed the Cats is a powerfully emotional hilariously grotesque satire of Western consumer culture and the trends that go along with it
