He gives life
And dies after fertilizing the eggs
He either abstains
He either dies
Both ways
He cannot escape
The poor invertebrate
For life is sweet
When given

Or face extinction when retained

Creativity and the Poetic Mind Jean Tobin, 2004 Creativity and the Poetic Mind mingles the voices of well known writers such as Nikki Giovanni Donald Hall John Koethe Marge Piercy and Robert Pinsky with newer voices and includes engaging excerpts from interviews with thirty eight American poets Within a sustained argument about creative states of mind this book innovatively presents and explores the technique of going to the place as more reliable in writing poetry than waiting for inspiration It explains why poets frequently believe that talking about their own poetry may damage their creativity and why for centuries inspiration has seemed to come from somewhere beyond the poet In addition it discusses the practicality of poets thinking that being creative and writing poetry are two separate skills inspiration is unreliable but experienced poets create daily Most Famous Not Yet Known: Memoirs, Titles, Poems, and Quotes Gijv©

Westbrook, 2019-02-25 What I want you to know about me is Act I is not nearly as glamorous as Act II I am really versatile I am certainly driven I am absolutely multitalented I promise to be controversial Most of all I promise to be honest It is Mr Barry Gorge who gave me the audacity to believe I could build my own record label Mr Smokey Robinson led me to the strength and ability that I could be an electrifying songwriter Now I have written song lyrics for almost 30 years in seven genres of mu The Book of the Incipit D. Vance Smith, Smith offers a theoretical understanding of beginning that departs from the structuralisms of Edward Said the traditional formalisms of A D Nuttall and most medievalist and modernist treatments of closure Instead he views a work s beginning as a figure of the beginning of the work itself and the inception of language as the problem of beginning to which we continually return BOOK JACKET Looking Both Ways Jane O.

through poetry a way of living in time without traditional religious assurances Day Lewis went further than his friends in seeking to forge a revolutionary poetry out of his commitment to Marxism When Stalinism led to his resignation from the Communist Party Day Lewis in the forties went on to shape a rich fiercely perceptive poetry out of the convergence of the wartime crisis with the explosive events of his own inner life intensified by the erotics of a decade long affair Returning to his Irish roots and meditating on the persistent tension between agnosticism and faith in the work of his third and final period Day Lewis wrote some of the most moving poems in the language about mortality and dying the limits and possibilities of human striving Through the traumatic changes of his life C Day Lewis came increasingly to depend on the intricacies of poetry itself as a way of living in time His abiding belief in the psychological and moral functions of poetry impelled him in his critical writings and in his own poetic practice to delineate a modern poetics that presents an effective alternative to the elitist experimentation associated with Modernism This vital revisionist reading of Day Lewis demonstrates that much of his best work was written after the thirties and establishes him as one of the most significant and accomplished British poets of the modern period Look Both Ways James Hazard, 1987
