Luigi Figini e Gino Pollini, architetti Padiglione d'arte contemporanea (Milan, Italy), Vittorio Savi, Luigi Figini, 1980

Luigi Figini e Gino Pollini Luigi Figini, Gino Pollini, Eugenio Gentili, 1959 Luigi Figini, Gino Pollini Vittorio Gregotti, Gino Pollini, 1996-01-01 Luigi Figini e Gino Pollini Vittorio Savi, 1980 Architecture and the Novel under the Italian Fascist Regime Francesca Billiani, Laura Pennacchietti, 2019-09-14 Architecture and the Novel under the Italian Fascist Regime discusses the relationship between the novel and architecture during the Fascist period in Italy 1922 1943 By looking at two profoundly diverse aesthetic phenomena within the context of the creation of a Fascist State art Billiani and Pennacchietti argue that an effort of construction or reconstruction was the main driving force behind both projects the advocated revolution of the novel form realism and that of architecture rationalism The book is divided into seven chapters which in turn analyze the interconnections between the novel and architecture in theory and in practice The first six chapters cover debates on State art on the novel and on architecture as well as their historical development and their unfolding in key journals of the period The last chapter offers a detailed analysis of some important novels and buildings which have in practice realized some of the key principles articulated in the theoretical disputes Architettura del XX secolo Corrado Gavinelli, Mirella Loik, 1993 Luigi Figini e Gino Pollini, architetti Vittorio Savi, 1980 Luigi Figini e Gino Pollini, architetti, 1980 Modern Architecture and the Mediterranean Jean-Francois Lejeune, Michelangelo Sabatino, 2009-12-04 Bringing to light the debt twentieth century modernist architects owe to the vernacular building traditions of the Mediterranean region this book considers architectural practice and discourse from the 1920s to the 1980s The essays here situate Mediterranean modernism in relation to concepts such as regionalism nationalism internationalism critical regionalism and postmodernism an alternative history of the modern architecture and urbanism of a critical period in the twentieth century The Oxford Dictionary of Architecture James Stevens Curl, Susan Wilson, 2015-02-26 Containing over 6 000 entries from Aalto to Zwinger and written in a clear and concise style this authoritative dictionary covers architectural history in detail from ancient times to the present day It also includes concise biographies of hundreds of architects from history excluding living persons from Sir Francis Bacon and Imhotep to Liang Ssu ch eng and Francis Inigo Thomas The text is complemented by over 260 beautiful and meticulous line drawings labelled cross sections and diagrams These include precise drawings of typical building features making it easy for readers to identify particular period styles This third edition of The Oxford Dictionary of Architecture has been extensively revised and expanded with over 900 new entries including hundreds of definitions of garden and landscape terms such as Baroque garden floral clock hortus conclusus and Zen garden design Each entry is followed by a mini bibliography with suggestions for further reading The full bibliography to the first edition previously only available online has also been fully updated and expanded and incorporated into this new edition This is an essential work of reference for anyone with an interest in architectural and garden history With clear descriptions providing in depth analysis it is invaluable for students professional architects art historians and anyone interested in architecture and garden design and provides a fascinating wealth of information for the general reader The Architecture of Modern Italy Terry Kirk,2005-06-02 Modern Italy may sound like an oxymoron For Western civilization Italian culture represents the classical past and the continuity of canonical tradition while modernity is understood in contrary terms of rupture and rapid innovation Charting the evolution of a culture renowned for its historical past into the 10 modern era challenges our understanding of both the resilience of tradition and the elasticity of modernity We have a tendency when imagining Italy to look to a rather distant and definitely premodern setting The ancient forum medieval cloisters baroque piazzas and papal palaces constitute our ideal itinerary of Italian civilization The Campo of Siena Saint Peter s all of Venice and San Gimignano satisfy us with their seemingly unbroken panoramas onto historical moments untouched by time but elsewhere modern intrusions alter and obstruct the view to the landscapes of our expectations As seasonal tourist or seasoned historian we edit the encroachments time and change have wrought on our image of Italy The learning of history is always a complex task one that in the Italian environment is complicated by the changes wrought everywhere over the past 250 years Culture on the peninsula continues to evolve with characteristic vibrancy Italy is not a museum To think of it as such as a disorganized yet phenomenally rich museum unchanging in its exhibits is to misunderstand the nature of the Italian cultural condition and the writing of history itself Contemporary Architects Ann Lee Morgan,Colin Naylor,1987 To strengthen the contemporary focus of this volume we have added about forty architects and have deleted some whose activity ceased before World War II In making these decisions we have been assisted by an Advisory Board As in the first volume we have continued to define the word architect very broadly so as to include planners theorists structural engineers and landscape architects whose work seems to be central to the enterprise of creating habitable spaces in our day Editor s note Fascist Modernism in Italy Francesca Billiani,2021-08-26 Between 1917 to 1975 Germany Italy Portugal the Soviet Union and Spain shifted from liberal parliamentary democracies to authoritarian and totalitarian dictatorships seeking total control mass consensus and the constitution of a new man woman as the foundation of a modern collective social identity As they did so these regimes uniformly adopted what we would call a modernist aesthetic huge scale experiments in modernism were funded and supported by fascist and totalitarian dictators Famous examples include Mussolini s New Rome at EUR or the Stalinist apartment blocks built in urban Russia Focusing largely on Mussolini s Italy Francesca Billiani argues that modernity was intertwined irrecoverably with fascism that too often modernist buildings art and writings are seen as a purely cultural output when in fact the principles of modernist aesthetics constitute and are constituted by the principles of fascism The obsession with the creation of the new man in art and in reality shows this synergy at work This book is a key contribution to the field of twentieth century history particularly in the study of fascism while also appealing to students of art history and philosophy Modern Architecture, Empire, and Race in Fascist Italy Brian L. McLaren,2021-02-22 In Modern Architecture Empire and Race in Fascist Italy Brian L McLaren examines the architecture of the late Fascist era in relation to the various racial constructs that emerged following the occupation of Ethiopia in 1936 and intensified during the wartime This study is conducted through a wide ranging investigation of two highly significant state sponsored exhibitions the 1942 Esposizione Universale di Roma and 1940 Mostra Triennale delle Terre Italiane d Oltremare These exhibitions and other related imperial displays are examined over an extended span of time to better understand how architecture art and urban space the politics and culture that encompassed them the processes that formed them and the society that experienced them were racialized in varying and complex ways Contemporary Architects Muriel Emanuel,2016-01-23 Milano.
