Relations entre hommes et femmes en Espagne aux XVI^e et XVII^e siècles Augustin Redondo, 1995

French Women in Politics: Writing Power Raylene L. Ramsay, 2003 Although more women in France have entered political life than ever before the fact remains that there are fewer women representatives in the French parliament than there were after the Second World War In a new and original approach the author presents an overview and analysis of the emerging body of text by or on women who have held high political office in France The argument is that writing about women and politics has not just described or reflected women's slow but now substantial entry into political life it has played a major part in shaping the parity debate and its outcomes Interviews with political women such as Huguette Bouchardeau Simone Veil or Edith Cresson inserted in the text demonstrate the emergence and circulation of a new common discourse focused on the issue of whether women in politics make or should make a difference A close reading of the various texts examined in this book and their connection to new public counter discourses in France suggest that a re writing of power is indeed occurring

Beyond French Feminisms R. Célestin, E. DalMolin, I. Courtivron, 2016-04-30 This volume a collection of essays by a number of high profile personalities working in philosophy literature sociology cinema theatre journalism and politics covers a number of recent and crucial developments in the field of French Feminisms that have made a reassessment necessary Beyond French Feminisms proposes to answer the question what is new in French Feminism at the beginning of the twenty first century The essays reflect the shift from the theoretical and philosophical approaches that characterized feminism twenty years ago to the more social and political questions of today Topics include the parity and PACS debates the France USA dialogue the multicultural issues and the new trends in literature and film by women

Alterities Thomas Docherty, 1996 Alterities marks an advance to a new stage of critical theory Dealing with literature from Shakespeare and Donne to Calvino with philosophy from the medieval to the contemporary with cinema from popular to art film and with political theory from Marx to Lyotard Baudrillard and Badiou Thomas Docherty intervenes in all the major contemporary cultural debates to propose and practice a new criticism whose theoretical foundations lie in a postmodern ethics ecopolitics and an austere attention to the radical difficulties of art Bound together by the cohesive drive of Docherty's intelligence and the coerciveness of the arguments he enlarges about alterity and historicity Alterities rehabilitates the question of why we bother about art and proposes new modes of critical engagement with contemporary culture

Gender, Families and Transmission in the Contemporary Jewish Context Martine Gross, Sophie Nizard, Yann Scioldo-Zurcher, 2017-05-11 Bringing together social science researchers from France Israel the United States Belgium and Switzerland this book analyses contemporary Jewishness within the constant dialectic between faithfulness to Jewish tradition and culture and adherence to the values of modernity and democracy Systems of family and gender normativity have durably influenced the traditional Jewish universe but the norms and the institutions that embody them are today shaky

Individualization the essence of modernity is at work in the Jewish world as it is elsewhere and new identities are emerging and question the transmission of Jewish identities and traditions The contributions here highlight the contrasting experiences of societies in the Diaspora and in Israeli society societies that are different yet sometimes very close because of tensions around religious and identity boundaries As such this book revisits the relationship to the other and the conditions for an alliance among people a notion dear to Judaism

Genre et fondamentalismes/Gender and Fundamentalisms Fatou Sow,2018-09-26 When why and how can religion and culture be both sources and places of expression for fundamentalisms particularly in relation to politics Those are the central questions asked throughout this book alongside a discussion on the result when religion strengthened by culture is used as a political tool to access moral and social power Cultural and religious messages often form the basis of decisions laws and programs made in politics and have a direct effect on society in general and on women and gender relations in particular The various forms taken by fundamentalisms in some African countries and the contexts under which they have emerged the ways in which they re shape identities and relationships between men and women are also analysed in this book These fundamentalisms are frequently sources of concern in social debates in feminist and feminine organizations as well as in academia and politics The manipulation of cultures and religions are becoming progressively political and consequently can cause social discrimination or even physical moral and symbolic violence

Modern France Malcolm Cook,Grace Davie,2002-01-04 Modern France is an up to date and accessible introduction to the nature of French society at the end of the twentieth century The book examines the transition of France and French life as the nation moves from an industrial to a post industrial economy and the cultural and social dislocations that such an evolution implies Sociological concepts and categories of class race gender age and region are discussed as well as how they combine together to produce inequalities and identities These concepts are then applied to a range of issues such as work politics education health religion and leisure Modern France reveals the nature of French society at a critical moment in her evolution and how a member of the European Union reflects distinctiveness and commonality in the development of Europe as a whole

Xy Elisabeth Badinter,1997 Examining changing role models for masculine identity from cowboy in the 1950s to Terminator in the 1990s from flesh and blood man to machine this book suggests that men need new role models and that sufficient room needs to be left for the expression of male vulnerability a psychic space that would accept attitudes and behaviors traditionally labeled as feminine This new model Badinter argues may reduce the profound effects of homophobia and misogyny

Global Exchanges and Gender Perspectives in Africa Jean-Bernard Ouedraogo,M. Achieng,2011-12-15 The global perspectives adopted in this volume by the authors from different academic disciplines and social experiences ought not to be locked in sterile linearity which within process of globalisation would fail to perceive the irreversible opening up of the worlds of the south There is the need within the framework of the analyses presented here to quite cogently define the sense of the notion of the market The market here does not refer to saving or the localised exchange of goods a perspective which is imposed by normative perceptions In fact a strictly materialistic reading of exchange would be included since every social practice and interaction implies a communitarian transaction meanwhile the exchange system under study here broadens to root out the obligation of the maximisation of mercantile profit from the cycle of exchange Trade here would have a meaning closer to those of old one of human interaction in a way that one could also refer to bon commerce between humans In one way trade places itself at the heart of social exchanges included the power of money and is carried along by a multitude of social interactions The reader is called upon to take into account the major mercantile formations of the social trade system the market society without forgetting the diversity of exchange routes as well as the varying modalities of social construction at the margins and within market logics those of implicit value in trade between humans which the texts herein also seek to review The age old project of restructuring the domestic economy the market society as it has developed in the West whence it has set out to conquer the whole wide world places at the very centre of the current capitalist expansion the challenge of imperatively reshaping gender identity inter alia in market relations
