The Lutheran Catechist; a Companion Book to the Lutheran Pastor George Henry Gerberding, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1910 edition. Excerpt CHAPTER XXIV OF CONFESSION Between parts four and five of the Catechism as a bridge from one to the other looking back to the grace vouchsafed in baptism and looking forward to a worthy reception of the Lord's Supper we have Luther's three questions on confession. This intermediate part of the Catechism brings before us a doctrine peculiar to our Church. She stands alone in her belief and teaching on this subject. Other Protestant churches have no confessional teaching on this subject unless it be to deny and repudiate what we teach. In the Reformed churches our teaching is abhorred and denounced as Romish and dangerous to the soul. Some Lutherans also are afraid of it and avoid mention of it as much as possible. They handle it very gingerly when called on to speak of it and often pervert it. To the Reformed ear and taste it is one of the most unpopular of all church doctrines. This aversion arises mainly from ignorance of the meaning and intent of the doctrine. It is prejudice. People who harbor the prejudice have never sincerely studied the subject. The very mention of confession and absolution seems to repel them. Unfortunately many Lutheran ministers seem to be unclear on the subject. They seem to be unable to make it clear to others. Their teaching and preaching leave the impression that the minister can and does in his own name and person forgive sins. Their careless impenitent and formalistic catechumens and hearers flatter themselves that because they have the pastor read the absolution therefore their sins are ipso facto forgiven. Their misunderstanding of the doctrine makes them feel secure in their impenitence and sin and endangers their soul's salvation. Here then is a blessed

The Publishers Weekly ,1911      The Heidelberg Catechism John Williamson Nevin, John Williams Proudfit, 2021-01-05

This volume is a collection of essays on the Heidelberg Catechism by John Nevin a principal representative of the Mercersburg Theology that was birthed in nineteenth century Pennsylvania It also contains a critical response by John Proudfit a more traditionally scholastic Calvinist In these essays Nevin argued that the Heidelberg Catechism is an essential irenic confessional document that encapsulates the Reformed tradition and also builds bridges to Lutheranism and Roman Catholicism According to Nevin the use of the Catechism is vital for shaping the identity of Christians and overcoming the dangers of individualism and subjectivism Nevin's enthusiasm for the Catechism was a function of his understanding of the Christian life as progressive growth in Christlikeness the church as the nurturing body of Christ and the sacraments as conduits of Christ's vivifying personhood These convictions stood in sharp contrast to the non catechetical sensibilities of most nineteenth century American Protestants who emphasized the sufficiency of Scripture alone the church as a gathered community of like minded individuals dramatic conversion experiences and the direct presence of Christ to the individual soul
