Lydian Houses and Architectural Terracottas Andrew Ramage, 1978-01-01 Lydian Architectural Terracottas Eric Hostetter, 1994 Lydian Painted Pottery Abroad R. Gül Gürtekin-Demir, 2021-10-15 This book is the first major study of Lydian material culture at Gordion and also the first published monograph on Lydian painted pottery from any site excavation Richly illustrated it provides a comprehensive definition and analysis of Lydian ceramics based on stylistic archaeological and textual evidence while thoroughly documenting the material's stratigraphic contexts The book situates the ceramic corpus within its broader Anatolian cultural context and offers insights into the impact of Lydian cultural interfaces at Gordion The Lydian pottery found at Gordion was largely produced at centers other than Sardis the Lydian royal capital although Sardian imports are also well attested and began to influence Gordion's material culture as early as the 7th century BCE if not before Following the demise of the Lydian kingdom a more limited repertoire of Lydian ceramics demonstrably continued in use at Gordion into the Achaemenid Persian period in the late 6th and 5th centuries BCE The material was excavated by Professor Rodney Young's team between 1950 and 1973 and is fully presented here for the first time Ongoing research in the decades following Young's excavations has led to a more refined understanding of Gordion's archaeological contexts and chronology and consequently we are now able to view the Lydian ceramic corpus within a more secure stratigraphic framework than would have been the case if the material had been published shortly after the excavations The Oxford Handbook of Ancient Anatolia Sharon R. M. Dussinberre, 2003-04-10 Elspeth R M Dussinberre proposes a fresh approach to understanding the Achaemenid Empire based on her study of the regional capital Sardis This study uses archaeological artistic and textual sources to demonstrate that the two hundred year Persian presence in this city had a profound impact on local social structures revealing the region's successful absorption both ideological and physical into the Persian Empire During this period Sardis was a centre of burgeoning creativity and vitality where a polyethnic elite devised a fresh culture inspired by Iranian Greek and local Lydian traditions that drew on and legitimated imperial ideology The non elite absorbed and adapted multiple aspects of this culture to create a wholly different profile of what it meant to be Sardian As well as successfully bringing together information on the Achaemenids this book is also an

Valuing the Past in the Greco-Roman World Christoph Pieper, James Ker, 2014-05-28 The classical tradition is no invention of modernity Already in ancient Greece and Rome the privileging of the ancient played a role in social and cultural discourses of every period A collaboration between scholars in diverse areas of classical studies this volume addresses literary and material evidence for ancient notions of valuing or devaluing the deep past from approximately the fifth century BCE until the second century CE It examines how specific communities used notions of antiquity to define themselves or others which models from the past proved most desirable what literary or exegetic modes they employed and how temporal systems for ascribing value intersected with the organization of space the production of narrative or the application of aesthetic criteria Sinope : Un État de la Question Après Quinze Ans de Travaux Dominique Kassab Tezgör, 2011-09-30 Les Actes du Symposium international consacr Sinope pr sentent les travaux arch ologiques et les recherches d di s cette ville depuis les ann es 90 L histoire de la cit ses productions artisanales et ses relations avec le reste de la mer Noire y sont tudi es Foundation Myths and Politics in Ancient Ionia Naoíse Mac Sweeney,2013-11-21 This book examines foundation myths told about the Ionian cities during the archaic and classical periods It uses these myths to explore the complex and changing ways in which civic identity was constructed in Ionia relating this to the wider discourses about ethnicity and cultural difference that were current in the Greek world at this time The Ionian cities seem to have rejected oppositional models of cultural difference which set in contrast East and West Europe and Asia Greek and Barbarian opting instead for a more fluid and nuanced perspective on ethnic and cultural distinctions The conclusions of this book have far reaching implications for our understanding of Ionia but also challenge current models of Greek ethnicity and identity suggesting that there was a more diverse conception of Greekness in antiquity than has often been assumed Deliciae Fictiles V. Networks and Workshops Patricia Lulof,Ilaria Manzini,Carlo Rescigno,2019-09-16 Temples are the most prestigious buildings in the urban landscape of ancient Italy emerging within a network of centres of the then known Mediterranean world Notwithstanding the fragmentary condition of the buildings remains these monuments and especially their richly decorated roofs are crucial sources of information on the constitution of political social and craft identities acting as agents in displaying the meaning of images The subject of this volume is thematic and includes material from the Eastern Mediterranean including Greece and Turkey Contributors discuss the network between patron elites and specialized craft communities that were responsible for the sophisticated terracotta decoration of temples in Italy between 600 and 100 BC focusing on the mobility of craft people and craft traditions and techniques asking how images iconographies practices and materials can be used to explain the organization of ancient production distribution and consumption Special attention has been given to relations with the Eastern Mediterranean Greece and Anatolia Investigating craft communities workshop organizations and networks has never been thoroughly undertaken for this period and region nor for this exceptionally rich category of materials or for the craftspeople producing the architectural terracottas Papers in this volume aim to improve our understanding of roof production and construction in this period to reveal relationships between main production centres and to study the possible influences of immigrant craftspeople Peace and Reconciliation in the Classical World E. P. Moloney,Michael Stuart Williams,2017-02-03 Warfare has long been central to a proper understanding of ancient Greece and Rome worlds where war was as the philosopher Heraclitus observed both king and father of all More recently however the understanding of Classical antiquity solely in such terms has been challenged it is recognised that while war was pervasive and a key concern in the narratives of ancient historians a concomitant desire for peace was also constant This volume places peace in the prime position as a panel of scholars stresses the importance of peace as a positive concept in the ancient world and not just the absence of or necessarily even related to war and considers examples of conflict resolution conciliation and concession from Homer to Augustine Comparing and contrasting theories and practice across different periods and regions this collection highlights first the open and dynamic nature of peace and then seeks to review a wide variety of initiatives from across the Classical world Military Leaders and Sacred Space in Classical Greek Warfare Sonya Nevin, 2016-11-10

The ancient Greeks attributed great importance to the sacred during war and campaigning as demonstrated from their earliest texts Among the first four lines of the Iliad for example is a declaration that Apollo began the feud between Achilles and Agamemnon and sent a plague upon the Greek army because its leader Agamemnon had mistreated Apollo's priest In this first in depth study of the attitude of military commanders towards holy ground Sonya Nevin addresses the customs and conduct of these leaders in relation to sanctuaries precincts shrines temples and sacral objects Focusing on a variety of Greek kings and captains the author shows how military leaders were expected to react to the sacred sites of their foes She further explores how they were likely to respond and how their responses shaped the way such generals were viewed by their communities by their troops by their enemies and also by those like Herodotus Thucydides and Xenophon who were writing their lives This is a groundbreaking study of the significance of the sacred in warfare and the wider culture of antiquity
