2 Corinthians John F. MacArthur, 2015-12-29 The apostle Paul wrote this intensely personal and biographical letter to defend his ministry and integrity against the slanderous attacks of false teachers and critics of the Christian movement After spending eighteen months in Corinth helping to establish a church the apostle Paul moved on in his mission to build more churches in Asia Minor But back in Corinth false teachers began to infiltrate the church and they were intent on ruining Paul's character and ministry This threatened to separate and create chaos among this once unified body Pastor John MacArthur will take you through the first letter to the church in Corinth to show how Paul deals firmly with the false teachers and their followers by focusing primarily on Christ while embracing his own weaknesses and imperfections As a powerful reminder for struggling and maligned believers everywhere Paul quotes the Savior My grace is sufficient for you for my strength is made perfect in weakness ABOUT THE SERIES The MacArthur Bible Study series is designed to help you study the Word of God with guidance from widely respected pastor and author John MacArthur Each guide provides intriguing examinations of the whole of Scripture by examining its parts and incorporates Extensive but straight forward commentary on the text Detailed observations on overriding themes timelines history and context Word and phrase studies to help you unlock the broader meaning and apply it to your life Probing interactive questions with plenty of space to write down your response and thoughts questions and new material take the participant deeper into God's Word Hard to Believe John F. MacArthur, 2006-01-08

Jesus Christ did not die on the cross so you and I could have a nice day. Ministers and teachers who water down the gospel of Christ in order to make it more popular and appealing may be leading their fun-loving audiences down the road to eternal punishment. This book is John MacArthur's unflinching unapologetic treatise on the modern tendency to alter the true message of Christianity in order to meet the whims and desires of a culture hoping for nonconfrontational messages, easy answers, and superficial commitments. Too many people just want a Madison Avenue Jesus to make them well, make them happy, and make them prosperous. But Jesus Christ isn't a personal genie. He is the Savior. He died in agony to satisfy the wrath of a holy God and to forgive the sins of humankind. Faith in Him demands a willingness to make any sacrifice. He asks: The hard truth about Christianity is that the cost is high, but the rewards are priceless, abundant, and eternal life that comes only from faithfully following Christ.

Hebrews John F. MacArthur, Louis Evans, 2003-07-22

General editor Lloyd J. Ogilvie brings together a team of skilled and exceptional communicators to blend sound scholarship with life-related illustrations. The design for the Preacher's Commentary gives the reader an overall outline of each book of the Bible. Following the introduction, which reveals the author's approach and salient background on the book, each chapter of the commentary provides the Scripture to be expounded. The New King James Bible has been chosen for the Preacher's Commentary because it combines with integrity the beauty of language underlying Hebrew and Greek textual basis and thought flow of the 1611 King James Version while replacing obsolete verb forms and other archaisms with their everyday contemporary counterparts for greater readability. Reverence for God is preserved in the capitalization of all pronouns referring to the Father, Son, or Holy Spirit. Readers who are more comfortable with another translation can readily find the parallel passage by means of the chapter and verse reference at the end of each passage being expounded. The paragraphs of exposition combine fresh insights to the Scripture, application, rich illustrative material, and innovative ways of utilizing the vibrant truth for his or her own life and for the challenge of communicating it with vigor and vitality.

Philippians John F. MacArthur, 2015-12-29

Circumstances: They are not all they're cracked up to be. For instance, Paul wrote his letter to the Philippians from a Roman prison cell, yet despite those dire circumstances, his major theme in the letter was joy. How did Paul find joy in a Roman prison cell? He didn't. He took his joy in Christ into jail with him. Paul's circumstances did not dictate his attitude. In this letter, he demonstrated several life attitudes that were shocking in their audacity and counter-intuitiveness: Rejoice in the Lord always. Living means living for Christ, and dying is even better. Think of others as better than yourselves. Whatever things were gained, count them as loss. You can do all things through Christ, who strengthens you.
