Making Sense of Hierarchy: Cognition as Social Process in Fiji Christina Toren, 2020-08-20 Analyses Fijian hierarchy and its constitution in everyday ritual behaviour The author spent July 1981 to February 1983 in Fiji eighteen months of the time being spent in the chiefly village of Sawaieke on the island of Gau This book is collection of her field research

Why We Disagree About Human Nature Elizabeth Hannon, Tim Lewens, 2018-06-27 Is human nature something that the natural and social sciences aim to describe or is it a pernicious fiction What role if any does human nature play in directing and informing scientific work Can we talk about human nature without invoking either implicitly or explicitly a contrast with human culture It might be tempting to think that the respectability of human nature is an issue that divides natural and social scientists along disciplinary boundaries but the truth is more complex The contributors to this collection take very different stances with regard to the idea of human nature They come from the fields of psychology the philosophy of science social and biological anthropology evolutionary theory and the study of animal cognition Some of them are human nature enthusiasts some are sceptics and some say that human nature is a concept with many faces each of which plays a role in its own investigative niche Some want to eliminate the notion altogether some think it unproblematic others want to retain it with reforming modifications Some say that human nature is a target for investigation that the human sciences cannot do without others argue that the term does far more harm than good The diverse perspectives articulated in this book help to explain why we disagree about human nature and what if anything might resolve that disagreement

The Social Science Encyclopedia Adam Kuper, 2003-12-16 The Social Science Encyclopedia first published in 1985 to acclaim from social scientists librarians and students was thoroughly revised in 1996 when reviewers began to describe it as a classic This third edition has been radically recast Over half the entries are new or have been entirely rewritten and most of the balance have been substantially revised Written by an international team of contributors the Encyclopedia offers a global perspective on the key issues within the social sciences Some 500 entries cover a variety of enduring and newly vital areas of study and research methods Experts review theoretical debates from neo evolutionism and rational choice theory to poststructuralism and address the great questions that cut across the social sciences What is the influence of genes on behaviour What is the nature of consciousness and cognition What are the causes of poverty and wealth What are the roots of conflict wars revolutions and genocidal violence This authoritative reference work is aimed at anyone with a serious interest in contemporary academic thinking about the individual in society

Living Kinship in the Pacific Christina Toren, Simonne Pauwels, 2015-04-01 Unaisi Nabobo Baba observed that for the various peoples of the Pacific kinship is generally understood as knowledge that counts It is with this observation that this volume begins and it continues with a straightforward objective to provide case studies of Pacific kinship In doing so contributors share an understanding of kinship as a lived and living dimension of contemporary human lives in an area where deep historical links provide for close and useful comparison The ethnographic focus is on transformation and continuity over time in Fiji Tonga and Samoa with the addition of three instructive cases from Tokelau Papua New Guinea and Taiwan The book ends with an account of how kinship is constituted in day to day ritual and ritualized behavior Encyclopedia of Social and Cultural Anthropology Dr Alan

Barnard,2002-09-11 This Encyclopedia provides description and analysis of the terms concepts and issues of social and cultural anthropology International in authorship and coverage this accessible work is fully indexed and cross referenced

Anthropology Beyond Culture Richard G. Fox,Barbara J. King,2020-05-18 Culture is a vexed concept within anthropology From their earliest studies anthropologists have often noted the emotional attachment of people to their customs even in cases where this loyalty can make for problems Do anthropologists now suffer the same kind of disability with respect to their continuing emotional attachment to the concept of culture This book considers the state of the culture concept in anthropology and finds fault with a love it or leave it attitude Rather than pledging undying allegiance or summarily dismissing it the volume argues that anthropology can continue with or without a concept of culture depending on the research questions being asked and furthermore that when culture is retained no single definition of it is practical or necessary Offering sensible solutions to a topic of hot debate this book will be essential reading for anyone seeking to learn what a concept of culture can offer anthropology and what anthropology can offer the concept of culture Time and

Social Structure and Other Essays Meyere Fortes,2021-01-14 The papers reprinted in this volume have been selected with two considerations in mind they record ethnographical observations from my field work among the Tallensi and in Ashanti that are not easily accessible elsewhere but continue to be useful for comparative studies and as background to current research in Ghana and they represent applications of methods of analysis and schemes of interpretation that were emerging in British structural anthropology at the time of their publication The Monographs on Social Anthropology were established in 1940 and aim to publish results of modern anthropological research of primary interest to specialists Land Tenure in

Ibo Village in South-Eastern Nigeria M. M. Green,2020-08-22 This material on land tenure forms part of the data collected during two tours in Nigeria between 1934 and 1937 while the author was the holder of a Leverhulme Research Fellowship for anthropological work among the Ibo people Anthropology, by Comparison Richard G. Fox,Andre Gingrich,2002-09-26

Comparison has long been the backbone of the discipline of anthropology But recent developments in anthropology including critical self reflection and new case studies sited in a globalized world have pushed comparative work aside For the most part comparison as theory and method has been a casualty of the critique of grand theory and of a growing mistrust of objectivist hard science methodology in the social sciences Today it is time for anthropology to resume its central task of exploring humankind through comparison using its newfound critical self awareness under changing global conditions In Anthropology By Comparison an international group of prominent anthropologists re visits re theorizes and re invigorates comparison as a legitimate and fruitful enterprise The authors explore the value of anthropological comparison and encourage an international dialogue about comparative research While rejecting older universalist comparative methods these scholars take a fresh look at various subaltern and neglected approaches to comparison from their own national traditions They then present new approaches that are especially relevant to the globalized world of the twenty first century Every student and practitioner of anthropology and the social sciences will find this thought provoking volume essential reading Anthropology by Comparison is a call to creative reflection on the past and productive action in the present a challenge to anthropologists to revitalize their unique contribution to human understanding Anthropology by Comparison is an indispensable overview of anthropology s roots and its future with regard to the comparative study of humankind Desire for Society H.G. Furth,2013-06-29 A powerful integrative and insightful theory of society Jack Meacham State University of New York Buffalo This provocative work presents a unified and scientifically grounded new theory on the development of society namely that the imaginary play of children reflects an endogenous orientation toward the construction of society In twelve studies Furth combines delightful observations of young children s spontaneous actions and interactions with lucid descriptions of complex psychological theories including those of Piaget Freud Lacan and Marxist scholars Connections Stephen P. Reyna,2002 Have you ever wondered how the internal space of our brain connects with the external space of society Drawing on hermeneutics and neuroscience Stephen Reyna develops an anthropological theory that explains the relationship between the biological and the cultural Recent popular interest in the brain is evident and now social anthropologists are starting to consider connections between science and anthropology Reyna is an anthropologist prepared to tackle big and difficult questions This accessibly written book will cause quite a stir in anthropology and will appeal to those interested in the mysteries of the brain Sociality Nicholas J. Long,Henrietta L. Moore,2013 The notion of sociality is now widely used within the social sciences and humanities However what is meant by the term varies radically and the contributors here through compelling and wide ranging essays identify the strengths and weaknesses of current definitions and their deployment in the social sciences By developing their own rigorous and innovative theory of human sociality they re set the framework of the debate and open up new possibilities for conceptualizing other forms of sociality such as that of animals or materials Cases from Asia Africa the Americas and Europe explore the new directions of human sociality illuminating how and why it is transformed when human beings engage with such major issues as economic downturn climate change new regimes of occupational and psychological therapy technological innovations in robotics and the creation of new online virtual environments This book is an invaluable resource not only for research and teaching but for anyone interested in the question of what makes us social Connections Stephen Reyna,2003-09-02 Have you ever wondered how the internal space of our brain connects with the external space of society Drawing on hermeneutics and neuroscience Stephen Reyna develops an anthropological theory that explains the relationship between the biological and the cultural Recent popular interest in the brain is evident and now social anthropologists are starting to consider connections between science and anthropology Reyna is an anthropologist prepared to tackle big and difficult questions This accessibly written book will cause quite a stir in anthropology and will appeal to those interested in the mysteries of the brain Social Mobility in Kerala Filippo Osella, Caroline Osella, 2000-12-20 The Izhavas are an ex untouchable community in the southern Indian state of Kerala Politically and economically weak stigmatised as toddy tappers and devil dancers and considered unapproachable by clean caste Hindus a century ago Izhavas were associated with other manual labouring untouchable castes In recent decades they have sought to improve their position by accumulating economic symbolic and cultural capital through employment religion politics migration marriage education and have tried to assert their right to mobility often in the face of opposition from their high status Christian and Nayar neighbours This study examines how Izhavas through repudiation of their nineteenth century identity and search for mobility have come into complex relationships with modernity colonialism and globalisation Filippo Osella and Caroline Osella highlight the complexities and contradictions of modern identity both locally and globally The authors approach builds upon and goes beyond a south Asian focus showing how the Izhavas represent the rise of formerly stigmatised groups who remain at the same time trapped by stereotype and material disadvantage Absolute mobility they argue has not led to relative mobility within a society which remains stratified and prone to new forms of social exclusion Questions of Anthropology Rita Astuti, Jonathan Parry, Charles Stafford, 2020-06-08 Anthropology today seems to shy away from the big comparative questions that ordinary people in many societies find compelling Questions of Anthropology brings these issues back to the centre of anthropological concerns Individual essays explore birth death and sexuality puzzles about the relationship between science and religion questions about the nature of ritual work political leadership and genocide and our personal fears and desires from the quest to control the future and to find one's true identity to the fear of being alone Each essay starts with a question posed by individual ethnographic experience and then goes on to frame this question in a broader comparative context Written in an engaging and accessible style Questions of Anthropology presents an exciting introduction to the purpose and value of Anthropology today Chinese Sociologies P. Steven Sangren, 2020-08-26 This volume explores the links between individuals families communities and the state in China through ritual and myth The Earth Shakers of Madagascar Oliver Woolley, 2020-08-29 An analysis of how the complex rituals of Sahafatra culture are used to transform a once barren landscape into agricultural land Expressions of Austronesian Thought and Emotions James J. Fox, 2018-04-18 This collection of papers is the seventh volume in the Comparative Austronesian series The papers in this volume focus on societies from Sumatra to Melanesia and examine the expression and patterning of Austronesian thought and emotions Filial Obsessions P. Steven Sangren, 2017-03-13 This book employs a broad analysis of Chinese patriliney to propose a distinctive theoretical conceptualization of the role of desire in culture It utilizes a unique synthesis of Marxian and psychoanalytic insights in arguing that Chinese patriliney is best understood as simultaneously a mode of production of desire and as instituted fantasy The argument advances through discussions and analyses of kinship family gender filial piety ritual and especially mythic narratives In each of these domains P Steven Sangren addresses the complex sentiments and ambivalences associated with filial relations Unlike most earlier studies which approach Chinese patriliney and filial piety as irreducible markers of cultural difference Sangren argues that Chinese patriliney is better approached as a topic of critical inquiry in its own right
