

Making the Second Half the Best Half

A painting of an elderly couple sitting on a beach, looking out at the ocean under a warm, golden sky. The man is on the left, wearing a dark shirt, and the woman is on the right, wearing a dark top. They are both looking towards the right, where the ocean and a bright sun or moon are visible. The overall tone is warm and nostalgic.

Pariseau,2014-12-09 Dick Pariseau reveals the excitement adventures and predicaments one can get into if one is afraid to miss anything welcomes every opportunity seeks excitement and listens to one s poker buddies when they suggest new or unfamiliar areas to explore He earned a PhD at night school because he thought decision makers would more readily accept his analysis if it was authored by a doctor Denied the opportunity to play basketball his most accomplished sport in college he chose to play lacrosse and became a First Team All American Seeking an advantage over the competition at singles dances he took dance lessons and ended up as a dance host and instructor aboard a cruise ship Uncomfortable with the casual disrobing of the co ed models at the university painting class his poker buddies recommended that he get over it by spending time at a nudist camp As an adventuresome traveler he has sailed the Nile River and flown in a hot air balloon over the Valley of the Kings gone hut to hut hiking in the Swiss Alps and learned to throw a boomerang with the aboriginals in Cairns Australia Be entertained by the adventures and humorous predicaments of this ordinary man and use it as a catalyst to document the adventures in your life Winners in the Second Half Julie Perigo,2008-09-15 Later career the second half of the game is not as it is often perceived to be a period of decline or a black hole but an inspirational time of Generative Leadership and a challenging opportunity for better tactics This book explores common fears and uncertainties about the second half of the game enabling you to feel comfortable exploring opportunities previously outside of your comfort zone and feel confident about your future The common language and frameworks will help you to influence your organisation to create innovative new models and opportunities around leadership both for yourself and your colleagues Cases and stories from high profile business public sector and sports professionals along side practical diagnoses will inspire show you how to take more personal control and determine what combination of things you really want in the second half with the tools and techniques to make this happen This is a practical leadership guide for anyone in management concerned with what their life career and leadership capabilities will look like once they approach and enter what used to be the traditional retirement age and move into the second half of the game David Grayson Director of the Doughty Centre for Corporate Responsibility at Cranfield School of Management I know from both the demographic data across the developed world and the personal experiences of many people that I meet socially and professionally that Julie is on to something very timely with her message

Pupil Friendly IEPs and Target Sheets Gillian Shotton,2009-09-18 Involving children in discussing planning and reviewing their targets for learning and behaviour is a key element of Every Child Matters 2003 and the Children s Plan 2007

This new edition of Gillian Shotton's best selling book has been updated to include new templates for teachers looking to involve children in writing their Individual Education Plan IEP as well as the introduction of target sheets applicable for all primary and secondary students. The resource provides a useful tool for helping teachers put some of the Assessment for Learning strategies into practice. Features of the new edition include IEP templates with brand new illustrations, Pupil friendly target sheets to engage learners in the target setting process, A Pupil Friendly Pastoral Support Programme developed specifically for secondary aged pupils, An Act of Kindness log to encourage and record positive acts in the classroom. The accompanying CD Rom provides easy to use engaging and fun templates which allow teachers to truly involve pupils in the planning and reviewing process. These resources can either be printed off as resource sheets to be filled in and coloured in by hand or they can be filled in on screen.

University of California Chronicle, 1901      Killa Kevin Kilbane, 2013-10-03 Kevin Kilbane is Ireland's third most capped player of all time with 110 appearances for his country including an incredible 66 consecutive matches. He played more than 600 matches at professional level and in Ireland is nothing less than a folk hero. But things could have been very different. Kilbane grew up the hard way enduring a tough Lancashire childhood with his Irish immigrant family. It was only his prowess on the pitch and subsequent signing with his childhood club Preston North End that gave him the opportunity to escape poverty. Kilbane has since built a formidable reputation as an honest dedicated professional who always gave his very best. He became a firm favourite with fans at the likes of West Bromwich Albion, Everton, Wigan and Hull as well of course as Ireland before he retired in 2012. Nowadays he is making a name for himself as a thoughtful analyst of the game on television and radio. But football is not the only passion in his life as the parent of a daughter with Down's syndrome, he gives as much time and support as he can to the Down's Syndrome Association and Down's Syndrome Ireland to which all the royalties from this book are being donated. Kilbane's autobiography is a genuinely inspiring story of a stalwart of the beautiful game.
