Making Policy In Europe:

Making Policy in Europe Svein S Andersen, Kjell A Eliassen, 2001-01-26 This Second Edition of Making Policy in Europe is fully revised and expanded to provide the most up to date introduction to the study of policymaking in the European Union EU The first part of the book introduces the different perspectives to study of the EU as a political system and provides a framework for the study of the main actors and institutions in the decision making process from transnational lobbying within Brussels to the implementation of EU law in national member states Part two introduces each of the main sectoral policy areas The common market is introduced and reviewed before students are provided with detailed studies of policies and policy making in telecommunications the environment energy education immigration and policing In each case the complex interaction between different interests and actors at different levels in the EU apparatus is richly illustrated and the future prospects for further integration fully examined The final part of the book looks at the future economic and political structure of the EU and the direction of contemporary studies of the EU and European integration A completely new chapter reviews European monetary union another looks at the important enlargement question and finally the editors review the wider implications for Europe and the EU political system This book will be essential reading for another generation of students of the EU European public policy and European integration In each case the complex interaction between interests and actors at different levels in the EU apparatus is richly illustrated and the future prospects for further integration are examined

Policy-Making and Diversity in Europe Adrienne Windhoff-Héritier, 1999-11-28 Shows how policy making in Europe works despite diverse interests      Judicial Politics and Policy-making in Western Europe Mary L.

Volcansek, 2014-04-08 Focusing on the intersection of politics and law in six western European countries and in two supra national bodies the contributors here aim to debunk the myth that judges are merely la bouche de la loi and analyze similarities in policy making of the judiciaries from one nation to the next      Policy-making in the European Union

Helen S. Wallace, Mark A. Pollack, Alasdair R. Young, 2010 The policies of the European Union profoundly affect the lives of people in Europe and around the world The new edition of this highly successful textbook outlines how and why such decisions are made as well as the key challenges faced by policy makers in the current political and economic climate Policy Making in the European Union begins by clarifying the institutional framework of the EU and the analytical approaches used to understand it A wide range of crucial and illustrative policies are then explored in detail by subject experts This volume includes new chapters on ways of analyzing the EU's policy process and on energy policy A central theme to the volume is how the recent expansion to twenty seven member states has affected policy making across the different policy sectors The conclusion reflects on how this challenge and the protracted constitutional stalemate have affected policy making in the EU It also explores the impact of the financial and economic crises that have struck Europe over the past several years The sixth edition is fully up to date and is the ideal text for all those with an interest in the policy making of the European Union

The Transformation of Governance in the European Union Rainer Eising, BEATE KOHLER-KOCH, 2003-09-02 The book presents a theoretically informed typology of modes of governance which is tested in a careful selection of comparative country and policy studies At the core is the question whether the European Union is destined to a network type of governance and whether and how this type of governance will be translated into the member states The individual chapters subject the governing patterns at European and national level to empirical scrutiny Drawing on recent research findings in different issue areas including monetary union social affairs environment genetic engineering and market liberalisation in transport banking energy professional services the contributions highlight the impact of the European activities on policy making process in the member states

Policies and Policy Processes of the European Union Laurie Buonanno, Neill Nugent, 2020-11-28 The dynamic and complex system of European Union policymaking is analysed in this new edition of a much praised textbook It offers the most integrated understanding of EU policy available Major approaches to policymaking including intergovernmentalism neofunctionalism supranationalism and critical theory are presented and supplemented with the authors own theoretical model federal integration to create a comprehensive evaluation of the EU s interests and actors in key policy domains The text covers the EU s main policy areas including those on the single market Economic and Monetary Union foreign policy migration and border control social and regional policies and the budget locating them in this wider theoretical framework As such it is the key introduction to the subject for students of European Politics at undergraduate and postgraduate levels New to this Edition Each chapter rewritten many extensively throughout New chapters on migration and border control competition policy and social and cohesion policies New illustrative material and many new examples Each chapter now includes a Guide to Further Reading

Adjusting to Europe Yves Mény, Pierre Muller, Jean-Louis Quermonne, 1996 First published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Republican Europe Anna Kocharov, 2017-06-01 Constitutional orders constitute political communities and international orders deriving from them by managing conflicts that threaten peace This book explores how a European political community can be advanced through EU constitutional law The constitutional role of the Union is to ensure peace by addressing two types of conflict The first are static conflicts of interests between the national polities in the EU These are avoided by ensuring reciprocal non interference between Member States in the Union through deregulation in Union law The second are dynamic conflicts of ideas about positive liberty held by the peoples of Europe These can be resolved through regulation in a European political space Here EU law enables a continuous process of re negotiating a shared European idea of positive liberty that can be accepted as its own by each national polity in the EU These solutions to the two types of conflicts correspond to the liberal and republican models for Europe The claim of this book is that the constitutional design of Europe presents both liberal and republican features Taking an innovative approach which draws on arguments from substantive law constitutional theory case law analysis insights from psychology and philosophy it identifies how best to strengthen the Union

through constitutional law      The A to Z of the European Union Joaquín Roy, Aimee Kanner, 2009-09-17 Over half a century old and continuing to grow in strength and authority the European Union consists of 25 member states with more on the waiting list and a population of 450 million people Its influence in foreign and domestic affairs and human rights and law reaches far beyond its earlier fields of trade and politics From the initial ideas about integration leading to the Treaty of Paris and the creation of the European Coal and Steel Community to the current reflection on the Treaty establishing a Constitution for Europe The A to Z of the European Union encompasses the most basic elements of the EU and the components that have emerged as a result of them Through the use of maps photographs a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on topics such as leaders personalities institutions enlargements member states internal policies external relations basic theories treaties and law this dictionary tells a clear and complete story about the European Union that will assist those with greater interest in understanding it      European Union and New Regionalism Mario Telò, 2016-04-22 Stemming from an international and multidisciplinary network of leading specialists this best selling text is fully updated with new chapter additions With the first edition prepared at the end of the last century and the second edition adding inter regional relations this new edition focuses on competing models of regional cooperation within a multipolar world and the role of European Union This new edition offers A comparative analysis of regional cooperation and of both US centred and EU centred interregionalism A fresh exploration of key issues of regionalism versus globalization and the potential for world economic and political governance through regional cooperation notably in hard times A vigorous response to conventional wisdom on the controversial EU international identity An appendix on regional and interregional organizations A key resource for postgraduate or undergraduate study and research of international relations European integration studies comparative politics and international political economy Taking into account both the expanded European Union and regional cooperation in every continent this multidisciplinary volume comprises contributions from established scholars in the field A Gamble P Padoan G Joff G Therborn Th Meyer R Higgott B Hettne F Ponjaert F Soederbaum Ch Deblock K Eliassen A Arnottir S Keukeleire I Petrova S Santander and M Tel editor

Health Care and Its Financing in the Single European Market Reiner Leidl, R. Leidl, 1998 Health care and its financing will not be harmonized within the European Union EU Therefore the differences between the health systems of the member states in a Single European Market are gaining in relevance The process of economic integration also effects health This book integrates economics law social political and health sciences in the analysis of health care issues in the EU It covers the development of health systems and policy in the community the markets for pharmaceuticals and for medical devices EU trends in hospital financing issues in the comparison of financing systems especially in the field of private expenditures reforms of health care financing in social security systems and national health services in the EU and cross border health care between EU member states The results feature an up to date overview on the European dimension of health care and its financing The book is relevant to experts in health care organizations policy industry and research

A Geopolitical Europe in the Making? Marek Neuman, Ramses A. Wessel, Thijs de Zee, 2025-08-02 This edited book investigates whether and if so to what extent the European Union began to turn its recently uttered ambition of becoming a geopolitical Union into practice It does so by bringing a range of scholars from various institutions and disciplines among others political science European law European studies together asking them whether in their specific field they can observe a geopolitical turn in the European Union's policy making The result of this intellectual endeavour can be found in this book a book that makes a first attempt at empirically testing the Union's ability to effectively respond to ever and rapidly changing conditions for conducting international politics in a rule based system The volume is divided into two separate yet mutually informing parts Part I consists of a series of empirical chapters assessing the EU's actorness vis vis other regional powers regional and international organisations This is followed by several empirical snapshots looking into specific policy areas in Part II As we combine the insights from both parts we attempt to contribute to the debate on the changing nature of the European Union in challenging times Our approach then is primarily an empirical one And yet building upon these conclusions we are able to also draw conceptual conclusions about the EU's increasing geopolitical nature or the lack thereof These conclusions make this a relevant read not only for academics but also for practitioners of European law and European integration Marek Neuman is Assistant Professor in EU Foreign Policy and Jean Monnet Chair of European Politics and Governance at the Faculty of Arts of the University of Groningen The Netherlands Ramses A Wessel is Professor of European Law at the Faculty of Law of the University of Groningen The Netherlands Thijs de Zee is a PhD Candidate at the Faculty Campus Fryslân of the University of Groningen The Netherlands Chapter 3 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com

Collective Action in the European Union Mark Aspinwall, Justin Greenwood, 2013-09-13 Collective Action in the European Union addresses fundamental questions surrounding the European political economy The impressive array of contributors ask how and why collective action is formed at the European level They also consider whether collective action at the transnational level is driven by rational utility maximising behaviour or whether explanations couched in social terms are more convincing Many of the chapters introduce fresh empirical studies in the domains of business the professions consumers and environmental interests

European Research Reloaded: Cooperation and Integration among Europeanized States Ronald Holzhaacker, Markus Haverland, 2006-09-01 The Three Waves of European Research European cooperation and integration has continued to progress forward over the past five decades with an ever deepening impact on the member states The first wave of research into these processes concerned European integration the process of institution building and policy developments at the European Union EU level The second wave on Europeanization used integration as an explanatory factor in understanding domestic political change and continuity related to the EU What is now necessary is to link our understanding of these bottom up and top down processes of integration and Europeanization in the EU This book argues that a third wave of research on the EU is needed to adequately understand the increased interconnectedness between the European and national political levels We posit that this third wave should be sensitive to the temporal dimension of European integration and Europeanization In particular we seek to link the processes of European integration and Europeanization in a new way by asking the question how has Europeanization affected current modes of integration and cooperation in the EU Part I Europeanization of the Member States Preparing the ground for the third wave the first part of the book concerns Europeanization In order to fully understand the feedback of Europeanization on cooperation and integration it is important to analyze how European integration has had an impact on member states in the first place in particular indirectly beyond the direct mechanism of compliance with European policies

Politics in the European Union Ian Bache, Simon Bulmer, Stephen George, Owen Parker, 2015 This is an account of the main developments in the process of European integration It provides coverage of theory history member states institutions and policies drawing on academic debates including issues of legitimacy and globalisation

Greening of the European Union Jon Burchell, Simon Lightfoot, 2001-01-01 This book critically examines the European Union's developing relationship with the green agenda identifying links between the emerging pattern of green politics and patterns of EU policy making It examines why and how the environment has become such a significant part of the EU's activities and assesses the extent of the greening of the Union In particular it examines to what extent green politics have impacted upon the EU institutions its other policies and its progress towards sustainability In tackling these questions the book questions whether these aims can be effectively instigated given the underlying economic rationale that has been the driving force behind the EU's development so far

The Political Economy of European Social Democracy David J. Bailey, 2009-05-19 Presenting case studies from the UK France Sweden Spain Italy and the transnational Party of European Socialists this text provides a theoretically innovative explanation for the new social democratic turn to Europe It will be of interest to postgraduate students and academics studying researching social democratic parties

European Regulatory Agencies in EU Decision-Making Christoph Ossege, 2016-01-06 European Regulatory Agencies ERAs have become increasingly important features in EU decision making They aim to provide expert advice independent of political or economic considerations This book explains whether and under what conditions ERAs comply with this scientific mandate Expanding on rational institutionalism Ossege provides novel insights into the behaviour of ERAs their autonomy from undue external influence and their impact on EU policy making The empirical comparison of three major ERAs the European Medicines Agency the European Food Safety Authority and the European Chemicals Agency not only shows that agencies capitalise on their expertise and rule making competences to protect their autonomy Rather in making strategic use of their expertise the ERAs also guard their autonomy in areas of high political salience though their policy influence in these areas is partially circumscribed Based on these insights European Regulatory Agencies in EU Decision Making locates its subject in the wider system of European Governance and considers the perennial question of how to reconcile the need for expert advice with democratic decision making      Making Policy in Europe Svein S Andersen, Kjell A Eliassen, 2001-05-02 This Second Edition of Making Policy in Europe is fully revised and expanded to provide the most up to date introduction to the study of policymaking in the European Union EU The first part of the book introduces the different perspectives to study of the EU as a political system and provides a framework for the study of the main actors and institutions in the decision making process from transnational lobbying within Brussels to the implementation of EU law in national member states Part two introduces each of the main sectoral policy areas The common market is introduced and reviewed before students are provided with detailed studies of policies and policy making in telecommunication      Foundations of European Politics Catherine E. De Vries, Sara Binzer Hobolt, Sven-Oliver Proksch, Jonathan B. Slapin, 2021 With its coherent analytical framework and accessible style Foundations of European Politics A Comparative Approach introduces students to comparative European politics through the lens of political science theory and data
