Making Sense Of Dying Death:

Making Sense Of: Dying and Death ,2004-01-01 This book aims to extend upon the growing body of literature concerned with dying and death The book analyses various experiences and representations of dying and death from the perspective of academic disciplines as diverse as theology philosophy sociology anthropology and literature The rationale for this is simple As objects of study dying and death cannot be usefully reduced to a single academic perspective One cannot hope to gain a deep and comprehensive understanding of dying and death by gazing at them through a single lens Bringing various perspectives in a single volume aims to both accurately record those enduring properties of the phenomena such as mourning and fear whilst simultaneously analysing the diversity and heterogeneity of human beings attempts to come to terms with this most forbidding of existential horizons      Making Sense of Death Gerry Cox,Robert Bendiksen,Robert Stevenson,2021-11-18 The editors of Making Sense of Death Spiritual Pastoral and Personal Aspects of Death Dying and Bereavement provide stimulating discussions as they ponder the meaning of life and death This anthology explores the process of meaning making in the face of death and the roles of religion and spirituality at times of loss the profound and devastating experience of loss in the death of a spouse or a child a psychological model of spirituality the dimensions of spirituality humor in client caregiver relationships the worldview of modernity in contrast to postmodern assumptions the Buddhist perspective of death dying and pastoral care meaning making in the virtual reality of cyberspace individualism and death and the historical context of Native Americans the concept of disenfranchised grief and its detailed application to the Native American experience It also explores a qualitative survey on the impact of the shooting deaths of students in Colorado a team approach with physicians nursing social services and pastoral care a study of health care professionals comparing clergy with other health professionals marginality in spiritual and pastoral care for the dying a qualitative research study of registered nurses in the northeast United States and loss and growth in the seasons of life      Families Making Sense of Death Janice Winchester Nadeau,1998 Through interviews and analysis Janice Winchester Nadeau takes a look at the dynamics at work in families in which a member has died She shares stories which show how families gradually come to terms with their grief and make sense of the death      Making Sense of Death, Dying and Bereavement Sarah Earle,Caroline Bartholomew,Carol Komaromy,2009      Making Sense of Nonsense Raymond Moody,2020-01-08 What do the whimsical writings of Dr Seuss have in common with near death experiences The answer is that nonsense writing and spiritual experiences seem to defy all logic and yet they both can make a powerful personal impact In this book New York Times bestselling author Dr Raymond Moody shares the groundbreaking results of five decades of research into the philosophy of nonsense revealing dynamic new perspectives on language logic and the mystical side of life Explore the meaningful feelings that accompany nonsense language and learn how engaging with nonsense can help you on your own spiritual path Discover how nonsense transcends classical logic opening the doorway to new spiritual and philosophical breakthroughs With dozens of examples from literature comedy music and the history of religion this book presents a unique new approach to the mysteries of the human spirit      Oxford Textbook of Palliative Care for Children Richard Hain,Ann Goldman,Adam Rapoport,Michelle Meiring,2021 Comprehensive in scope exhaustive in detail and definitive in authority this third edition has been thoroughly updated to cover new practices current epidemiological data and the evolving models that support the delivery of palliative medicine to children This book is an essential resource for anyone who works with children worldwide

Making Sense of God's Love Lorraine Cavanagh,2012-05-04 How can we be restored to God s love Is there a way back Many people are put off Christianity by the idea of God punishing his Son for our sins They find it hard to believe in a loving God who appears to be so angry and vindictive Many also feel that the things Christians teach publicly or privately do not work for them in real life This book therefore addresses some of the difficult questions that these people are asking It is also for those who may be wanting to return to their faith and for those who would like to explore it in greater depth It aims to create an open theological landscape which will take account of the many different ways in which we are saved and restored Making Sense of God s Love will help to guide seekers towards a new understanding of what it really means to live as people who have been forgiven and brought into an honest and deep relationship with God through the atoning and redemptive work of Jesus Christ

Making Meaning of Loss Richard L. Hayes,2022-10-31 Making Meaning of Loss Change and Challenge Across the Lifespan is about how change brings loss to our lives how we make meaning of loss and how our experience with loss directs our encounters with loss in the future Each loss challenges us in this way to rethink our world view to ask who we have become and to reinvent ourselves anew Taking a lifespan approach Hayes examines how we make sense of the losses that change brings in each period of our lives and how the way in which we meet the challenge that each loss brings directs our encounters with loss in the future In addition he provides suggestions for how earlier losses can become fruitful allies in encounters with change in the present and how caregivers can help others to make meaning of the loss in their lives Above all this book is about how caregivers can help others learn from the losses in their lives and to recognize what part of the past to bring along into the present in constructing a more reliable self for meeting the challenges of an uncertain future

Making sense of Jesus Francois Tolmie,Rian Venter,2017-12-01 Making sense of Jesus is comprised of twelve chapters of a Christological nature which are the result of a multidisciplinary theological research project The aim of this book is to ascertain how in the current cultural situation an encounter with Jesus is determined by specific historical and personal conditions and what the consequences of such an encounter may be

How to Make Sense of God J. N. M. Wijngaards,John N. Wijngaards,1995 Does God exist In this modern scientific age is it still reasonable to believe in God Does God cause evil How can an all good God allow the suffering of innocent children In 65 brief readable chapters How to Make Sense of God answers these and many other basic questions about God s love and care the pgift of human freedom and the real power of prayer Wijngaards shows clearly and convincingly why belief is in fact eminently reasonable in the modern
