Making Waves Essays:

Making Waves Mario Vargas Llosa, 1997 Spanning 30 years of writing these essays traces the development of Mario Vargas Llosa's thinking on politics and culture and show the breadth of his interests and passions A Publishers Weekly Best Book of 1997 Making Waves: Essays 1962-93 Mario Vargas Llosa, 2013-04-04 WINNER OF THE NOBEL PRIZE IN LITERATURE Mario Vargas Llosa has been making waves in cultural and political spheres for over thirty years Making Waves presents for the first time in English a collection of his essays a journey through time through books and through different geographical locations plotting the intellectual biography of one of the world's finest writers We follow Vargas Llosa from Peru to France where he writes on Sartre Simone de Beauvoir and Camus visits the dog cemetery which contains the tomb of Rin Tin Tin and describes the life of the aspirant writer in the Paris of the 1960s In Britain he examines the writings of Doris Lessing and Salman Rushdie the house in Dean Street where Karl Marx lived and in a hilarious and celebrated memoir considers the transformation of his son Gonzalo into a rastafarian Mario Vargas Llosa Juan E. De Castro, 2011-09 Examines the life and writings of Mario Vargas Llosa an outspoken author from Peru known for his political writings as well as his literary works who at one time was scheduled to debate Hugo Chavez of Venezuela himself over matters of socialism versus free market neoliberalism Chavez called the debate off however yielding a slough of questions about the late president's convictions about his political views and praise for the strength of Vargas Llosa's Writing Revolution in Latin America Juan E. De Castro, 2019-09-15 In the politically volatile period from the 1960s through the end of the twentieth century Latin American authors were in direct dialogue with the violent realities of their time and place Writing Revolution in Latin America is a chronological study of the way revolution and revolutionary thinking is depicted in the fiction composed from the eye of the storm From Mexico to Chile the gradual ideological evolution from a revolutionary to a neoliberal mainstream was a consequence of on the one hand the political hardening of the Cuban Revolution beginning in the late 1960s and on the other the repression dictatorships and economic crises of the 1970s and beyond Not only was socialist revolution far from the utopia many believed but the notion that guerrilla uprisings would lead to an easy socialism proved to be unfounded Similarly the repressive Pinochet dictatorship in Chile led to unfathomable tragedy and social mutation This double edged phenomenon of revolutionary disillusionment became highly personal for Latin American authors inside and outside Castro's and Pinochet's dominion Revolution was more than a foreign affair it was the stuff of everyday life and therefore of fiction Juan De Castro's expansive study begins ahead of the century with Jos Mart in Cuba and continues through the likes of Mario Vargas Llosa in Peru Gabriel Garc'a M'quez in Colombia and Roberto Bola'o in Mexico by way of Chile The various often contradictory ways the authors convey this precarious historical moment speaks in equal measure to the social circumstances into which these authors were thrust and to the fundamental differences in the ways they themselves witnessed history Making Waves Frederick Lau, Christine R. Yano, 2018-02-28 Musical sounds are some of the most mobile human elements crossing national cultural and regional boundaries at an ever increasing pace in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Whole musical products travel easily though not necessarily intact via musicians CDs and earlier cassettes satellite broadcasting digital downloads and streaming The introductory chapter by the volume editors develops two framing metaphors traveling musics and making waves The wave making metaphor illuminates the ways that traveling musics traverse flows of globalization and migration initiating change and generating energy of their own Each of the nine contributors further examines music its songs makers instruments aurality aesthetics and images as it crosses oceans continents and islands In the process of landing in new homes music interacts with older established cultural environments sometimes in unexpected ways and with surprising results They see these traveling musics in Hawai i Asia and the Pacific as making waves that is not only riding flows of globalism but instigating ripples of change What is the nature of those ripples What constitutes some of the infrastructure for the wave itself What are some of the effects of music landing on transported to or appropriated from distant shores How does the Hawai i Asia Pacific context itself shape and get shaped by these musical waves The two poetic and evocative metaphors allow the individual contributors great leeway in charting their own course while simultaneously referring back to the influence of their mentor and colleague Ricardo D Trimillos whom they identify as the wave maker The volume attempts to position music as at once ritual and entertainment esoteric and exoteric tradition and creativity within the cultural geographies of Hawai i Asia and the Pacific In doing so they situate music at the very core of global human endeavors

Making Waves, Revised and Expanded Geoffrey Nowell-Smith, 2013-06-20 The 1960s was famously the decade of sex drugs and rock n roll It was also a decade of revolution and counter revolution of the Cuban missile crisis of the American intervention in Vietnam of economic booms and the beginning of consumerism and the rebellion against it In Hollywood the genres which had held audiences captive in the 1940s and 50s musicals Westerns melodramas were losing their appeal and their great practitioners were approaching retirement The scene was therefore set for new cinemas to emerge to attract the young the discriminating the politically conscious and the sexually emancipated Making Waves Revised and Expanded is a sharp focused and brilliant survey of the innovative filmmaking of the 1960s placing it in its political economic cultural and aesthetic context capturing the distinctiveness of a decade which was great for the cinema and for the world at large Geoffrey Nowell Smith pays particular attention to a handful of the most remarkable talents Godard Antonioni Oshima that emerged during the period and helped to make it so special Nowell Smith updates his classic text with a focus on 1960s Japan and the burgeoning New York scene

20:20 ,1994 Aftermaths Marcus Paul Bullock,Peter Yoonsuk Paik,2009 Aftermaths is a collection of essays offering compelling new ideas on exile migration and diaspora that have emerged in the global age In seeking fresh perspectives on the movement of people and ideas the essays included here look to the power of the aesthetic experience especially in literature and film to unsettle existing theoretical paradigms and enable the rethinking of conventionalized approaches

Translation and Minority Lawrence Venuti,2016-04-29 The premise of this volume is a question What can the concept of minority bring to the practice and study of translation Minority is understood here to mean a cultural or political position that is subordinate whether the social context that so defines it is local national or global This position is occupied by languages and literatures that lack prestige or authority the non standard and the non canonical what is not spoken or read much by a hegemonic culture Yet minorities also include the nations and social groups that are affiliated with these languages and literatures the politically weak or underrepresented the colonized and the disenfranchised the exploited and the stigmatized Translation today is itself a minor use of language a lesser art an invisible craft that commands less cultural capital and fewer legal privileges than original composition Yet the focus in this collection is not on what translators worldwide have in common but on the distinctive forms that translating takes when it is done by or on behalf of minorities The articles in this volume present a variety of case studies that illuminate the linguistic and cultural problems posed by such translating as well as the economic and political agendas it has served Together these pieces show that the concept of minority is worth exploring because it inspires innovation in translation practice and research Minor cultures are coincident with new translation strategies new translation theories and new syntheses of the diverse methodologies that constitute the discipline of translation studies Snapshots of the Mind Gary A.
