Cat Dundurn Press Limited, 2006-01-01 Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index , 1975 Making Waves Frederick Lau, Christine R. Yano, 2018-02-28 Musical sounds are some of the most mobile human elements crossing national cultural and regional boundaries at an ever increasing pace in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Whole musical products travel easily though not necessarily intact via musicians CDs and earlier cassettes satellite broadcasting digital downloads and streaming The introductory chapter by the volume editors develops two framing metaphors traveling musics and making waves The wave making metaphor illuminates the ways that traveling musics traverse flows of globalization and migration initiating change and generating energy of their own Each of the nine contributors further examines music its songs makers instruments aurality aesthetics and images as it crosses oceans continents and islands In the process of landing in new homes music interacts with older established cultural environments sometimes in unexpected ways and with surprising results They see these traveling musics in Hawai i Asia and the Pacific as making waves that is not only riding flows of globalism but instigating ripples of change What is the nature of those ripples What constitutes some of the infrastructure for the wave itself What are some of the effects of music landing on transported to or appropriated from distant shores How does the Hawai i Asia Pacific context itself shape and get shaped by these musical waves The two poetic and evocative metaphors allow the individual contributors great leeway in charting their own course while simultaneously referring back to the influence of their mentor and colleague Ricardo D Trimillos whom they identify as the wave maker The volume attempts to position music as at once ritual and entertainment esoteric and exoteric tradition and creativity within the cultural geographies of Hawai i Asia and the Pacific In doing so they situate music at the very core of global human endeavors Michael Bloomfield Ed Ward, Billy F. Gibbons, 2016-09-01 Nominated for the 2017 ARSC Award for Excellence in Historical Recorded Sound Research This is the definitive biography of the legendary guitarist whom eminent figures like Muddy Waters and B B King held in high esteem and who created the prototype for Clapton Hendrix Page and everyone who followed Bloomfield was one of the first popular music superstars of the 1960s to earn his reputation almost entirely on his instrumental prowess He was a member of the Paul Butterfield Blues Band which inspired a generation of white blues players he played with Bob Dylan in the mid 1960s when his guitar was a central component of Dylan s new rock sound on

Like a Rolling Stone and at his earthshaking 1965 Newport Folk Festival performance He then founded the Electric Flag recorded Super Session with Al Kooper backed Janis Joplin and released at least twenty other albums despite debilitating substance abuse He died of a mysterious drug overdose in 1981 A very limited edition of a book of this title was first published in 1983 but it has here been so thoroughly revised and expanded that it is essentially a brand new publication Based on extensive interviews with Bloomfield himself and with those who knew him best and including an extensive discography and Bloomfield's memorable 1968 Rolling Stone interview Michael Bloomfield is an intimate portrait of one of the pioneers of rock guitar

Tracing Tangueros Kacey Link, Kristin Wendland, 2016-01-29 Tracing Tangueros offers an inside view of Argentine tango music in the context of the growth and development of the art form's instrumental and stylistic innovations Rather than perpetuating the glamorous worldwide conceptions that often only reflect the tango that left Argentina nearly 100 years ago authors Kacey Link and Kristin Wendland trace tango's historical and stylistic musical trajectory in Argentina beginning with the guardia nueva's crystallization of the genre in the 1920s moving through tango's Golden Age 1932-1955 and culminating with the Music of Buenos Aires today Through the transmission discussion examination and analysis of primary sources currently unavailable outside of Argentina including scores manuals of style archival audio video recordings and live video footage of performances and demonstrations Link and Wendland frame and define Argentine tango music as a distinct expression possessing its own musical legacy and characteristic musical elements Beginning by establishing a broad framework of the tango art form the book proceeds to move through twelve in depth profiles of representative tangueros tango musicians within the genre's historical and stylistic trajectory Through this focused examination of tangueros and their music Link and Wendland show how the dynamic Argentine tango grows from one tanguero linked to another and how the composition techniques and performance practices of each generation are informed by that of the past

Radio's New Wave Jason Loviglio, Michele Hilmes, 2013-06-19 Radio's New Wave explores the evolution of audio media and sound scholarship in the digital age Extending and updating the focus of their widely acclaimed 2001 book The Radio Reader Hilmes and Loviglio gather together innovative work by both established and rising scholars to explore the ways that radio has transformed in the digital environment Contributors explore what sound looks like on screens how digital listening moves us new forms of sonic expression radio's convergence with mobile media and the creative activities of old and new audiences Even radio's history has been altered by research made possible by digital and global convergence Together these twelve concise chapters chart the dissolution of radio's boundaries and its expansion to include a wide ranging universe of sound visuals tactile interfaces and cultural roles as radio rides the digital wave into its second century
